Each year, the President recognizes an esteemed group of career Senior Executives and senior career employees with the Presidential Rank Award. The 2013 Presidential Rank Award finalists, listed below, are entrusted with tremendous responsibilities. They are part of an agile force of the highest-level of Federal career leaders. They accomplish monumental results that are of national and often international significance.

Panels of private citizens, charged with reviewing all nominees, identified these finalists as providing the executive leadership and obtaining the necessary results to help move this great country forward. This honor recognizes the exemplary achievements of these individuals as well as their agency's appreciation of their contributions to the Federal government.
