USTDA is providing critical project planning assistance for 30 Power Africa projects.

These projects will support over 660 MW of new low-carbon power generation and will supply electricity to an estimated 1.3 million homes.

Through Power Africa, USTDA nearly tripled its funding for power projects:

If realized, these exports could support an estimated 11,000 jobs across the U.S.

USTDA supports all aspects of energy development and deployment, from new generation to grid modernization.
