Negotiations

Section 1. It is agreed and understood that matters appropriate for negotiation between the parties are policies, practices, and procedures and matters affecting conditions of employment that are more than de minimis as required by Chapter 71, Title 5, U.S. Code and case law. The Employer shall give due regard to the obligations imposed by applicable laws, rules, regulations, and this Agreement.

However, the obligation to meet and negotiate does not include matters excluded by provisions of Article 4 and law as required by Chapter 71, Title 5, U.S. Code. This does not preclude the parties from negotiating agreements on the procedures and impact of implementing substantive changes required by law or regulation issued at a higher level.

Mid-term changes involving one Center will only affect that Center, unless the other Center chooses to adopt the agreement. If so, it will be reflected in the language of the agreement.

Section 2. Prior to publishing any new or revised policy effecting substantive conditions of employment in the unit, Management shall provide to the Union's President written notice of the proposed change(s) of the bargaining unit employee's conditions of employment (that are not otherwise covered by the Parties' agreement). A period of fourteen (14) calendar days from date of receipt to advise the Employer, in writing of the Union's request to negotiate and provide the Employer written proposals.

Section 3. After receipt of the Union's proposals, the Employer and the Union will bargain, as appropriate and in accordance with applicable law, rule and regulation. If the Union's proposals are not provided to the Employer within fourteen (14) calendar days as stated above, then the request to negotiate will be deemed waived and closed, and the Employer may proceed with implementation, unless an extension is requested and approved in advance.

Section 4. Negotiations will take place as soon as practical, but no more than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Union has provided proposals, unless the parties mutually agree to extend the period. The Parties will strive to reach agreement and conclude bargaining within fourteen (14) calendar days from the start of negotiations. The bargaining period may be extended by mutual agreement of the Parties.

Section 5. Should the Parties not come to an agreement within fourteen (14) calendar days, the Employer may implement the change in its discretion. However, post-implementation bargaining procedures pursuant to Section 6 of this article will apply if the Parties are unable to reach agreement prior to the implementation date declared by the Employer.

Section 6. Post-Implementation Bargaining Procedure

- A. Definition. Post-implementation bargaining is bargaining after a management-initiated change has been implemented. When the Employer determines that a particular change is necessary or appropriate, in accordance with law, rule or regulation, and must be implemented by a certain date, post-implementation procedures will apply if the parties are unable to reach agreement prior to the implementation date of the change.
- B. Post Implementation Bargaining Procedure. The Union will be provided notice of change following the implementation date by the Employer and afforded the opportunity to bargain. The Union will have fourteen (14) calendar days to submit their demand to bargain accompanied by their bargaining proposals related to the implemented change. The Union will be afforded the opportunity to submit bargaining proposals concerning the change for up to fourteen (14) calendar days following the date that implementation by the Employer has occurred. The Union shall not file unfair labor practice charges solely over the Employer implemented change. However, the Union reserves all other rights pursuant to applicable laws and regulations. Once Union proposals have been submitted to the Employer, the procedures above will apply.

Section 7. Agency Head Review. All negotiated agreements shall be subject to review by the head of the Agency, or designee pursuant to 5 U.S.C §7114 (c).

ARTICLE 8

Impasses in Negotiations

Section 1. When the Union and Management determine that an impasse has been reached on an item in negotiation, the item will be set aside. After all negotiable items on which agreement can be reached have been disposed of, the parties will once more attempt to resolve any existing impasse items.

Section 2. If the Union or Management concludes that an impasse has been reached on an issue, either party may request mediation from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) by stating its position in writing, together with a notice of intent to request mediation. Within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the notice the other party may submit, in the interest of compromise, a counter proposal. Failure to submit a counter proposal within these fourteen (14) calendar days will constitute agreement to proceed with mediation.

Section 3. If, after discussion between the parties of the counter proposal submitted in accordance with Section 2 above, either party concludes that the impasse still exists, it will notify the other party in writing and request mediation as indicated in Section 4 below.

Section 4. Within fourteen (14) calendar days after either or both parties conclude that the impasse still exists, either or both parties will request FMCS to provide mediation service in accordance with the procedures set forth in the regulations of the service.

Section 5. The above does not preclude either party from presenting, in the interest of reaching an agreement, a substantive counter proposal at any stage in this procedure that would continue negotiations without the assistance of mediation.

Section 6. It will be the function of the mediator to assist both parties without taking sides. The mediator will make no public recommendations concerning issues.

Section 7. When the service of FMCS fails to resolve a negotiation impasse, the issue involved will be referred within fourteen (14) calendar days to the Federal Impasse Panel by the Local Center Director, in accordance with Chapter 71, Title 5, U.S. Code, as amended.

B. Suspension of fourteen days or less: The following applies to an individual in the competitive service who is not serving a probationary or trial period under an initial appointment or who has completed one year of current continuous employment in the same or similar positions under other than a temporary appointment limited to one year or less. Such an Employee is entitled to:

1. Not less than seven (7) calendar days a reasonable time to answer orally and in writing and to furnish affidavits and other documentary evidence in support of the answer. - L. An award of any form of incentive pay, including cash awards; quality step increases; or recruitment, retention, or relocation payments.

Section 2. Most grievances arise from misunderstandings or disputes, which can be settled promptly and satisfactorily on an informal basis at the immediate supervisory level. Management and the Union agree that every effort will be made by Management and the aggrieved party/parties to settle grievances at the lowest possible level. In as much as dissatisfactions and disagreements arise occasionally among people in a situation, the filing of a grievance shall not be construed as reflecting unfavorably on an Employee's good standing, performance, loyalty or desirability to the organization. An Employee may have a representative of his/her choice at any step of the grievance procedure.

Section 3. Employees, union representatives and all other persons involved in the presentation of a grievance will be free from restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination or reprisals. Reasonable time during duty hours will be allowed for Employees to discuss, prepare for and present grievances at all levels. Union representatives will only be allowed time during duty hours to discuss, prepare for and present a grievance brought on their own behalf. Such time must be requested and approved in accordance with the release procedures in Article 9, Section 3(B) and is subject to the limitations in Article 9, Section 3(D). Regardless of whether the grievant has requested Union representation, the Union has the right to attend and will be informed of them.

Section 4. When a group of Employees have an identical grievance, it may be considered a group grievance. However; any Employee may elect to have his/her grievance processed separately. Such an election must be made prior to entering into Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

Section 5. The Employee or representative may terminate the grievance at any time by giving written notice to the Center Director.

Section 6. Both parties, by mutual agreement, may extend the time limit at any step within the negotiated grievance procedure. Failure of Management to observe the time limits shall entitle the Employee to advance the grievance to the next step.

Section 7. A grievance file will be maintained by Management for each case that goes beyond Step 1. The file will contain:

- A. the written complaints;
- B. the summary of discussions of all proceedings at each step;
- C. documentary evidence considered in resolving the grievance; and
- D. the written decision rendered at each step.

On request, the Employee or Employee's representative will be furnished a copy of all materials in the grievance file.

Section 8. Any rejection of a grievance on the grounds that it is not a matter of subject to this grievance procedure, or is not subject to arbitration, will be served upon the Union in writing.

All disputes of grievability or arbitrability shall be referred to arbitration as a threshold issue in the related grievance.

Section 9. Employees using this grievance procedure must be represented by an individual approved by the Union, except in those situations where the Employee elects to represent him/her self. Any adjustment in which the Union does not represent the Employee may not be inconsistent with the terms of this agreement and the Union will be given the opportunity of being present at the adjustment. Only the Union will be entitled to invoke arbitration of an Employee grievance under the arbitration Article of the Agreement.

Section 10. The grievance procedure shall consist of the following steps:

Employee Grievance

Step 1 - The Employee or union representative submits his/her grievance in writing to his/her direct supervisor or designee within fourteen (14) calendar days after the act or occurrence; or the date the Employee became aware of the act or occurrence. The parties agree that an identifiable action with a determinative date will serve as the initial filing date of a grievance. In no instance will a "continuing violation" theory be used to extend a grievance filing deadline. Supervisor or designee will give his/her decision in writing to the Employee within fourteen (14) calendar days after the grievance was received by Management. A copy of Management's written decision will be sent to the grievant and the appropriate union representative.

The Employee may request the Union to represent him/her, but in any case the Union will be notified that the grievance has been filed with the Supervisor or designee and of the date, time and place which has been set up to discuss the grievance with the Employee. The Union will be given the opportunity to be present at the formal discussion.

Step 2 - If the Employee is still dissatisfied, he/she may refer the written grievance and Management's step 1 written decision to the Center Director or designee within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date he/she receives Management's step 1 decision. The Center Director or designee will arrange to formally discuss the matter with the Employee within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date of receipt of the grievance and decision.

The Employee may request the Union to represent him/her, but in any case the Union will be notified that the grievance has been filed with the Center Director and of the date, time and place which has been set up to discuss the grievance with the Employee. The Union will be given the opportunity to be present at the formal discussion.

The Center Director, or designee will provide his/her decision to the Employee within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date of the discussion of the grievance. The Center Director, or designee's decision will be submitted in writing.

If the responding official's written decision does not result in satisfactory settlement, the Union may initiate resolution of the grievance by arbitration by serving written request for arbitration to the Step 2 responding official, within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt by the Employee (copies to Union and his/her representative) of the responding official's written decision. Such request will be processed in accordance with Article 24.

Management Grievance

Step 1 - If Management is the grieving party, representatives of the two parties may informally discuss and attempt to resolve the grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days after the act or occurrence or the date that the grieving party is aware of the act or occurrence. A copy of the grievance must be presented in writing at the time of the informal discussion or be submitted to the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the act or occurrence or the date the grieving party is aware of the act or occurrence.

The decision of the party receiving the grievance will be issued to the grieving party in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days after the informal discussion or when the written grievance was issued. Such decision will include a statement of the grievance as well as the statement of the decision.

If the grievance is not resolved under Step 1 of this procedure, the grieving party will have the opportunity to present the grievance to arbitration in accordance with Article 24, Arbitration. A written request must be served on the other party within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the written decision in Step 1.

Section 11. All time limits in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement of Management and the Union. Failure to observe time limits will entitle the grieved party to advance the grievance to the next step. Failure to observe the time limits will terminate the grievance.

Section 12. Union representatives and aggrieved Employees will be permitted a reasonable amount of official time while preparing for a grievance or appeals and hearings.

Arbitration

Section 1. The use of arbitration as set forth herein will apply to grievance over interpretation or application of the Agreement. Arbitration shall be invoked only by the Union or Management. Striking first will be determined by a toss of the coin. Winner will strike first from the list of arbitrators.

Section 2. Within ten (10) calendar days after the date of receipt of a request for arbitration by either party, Union or Management, both parties will meet for the purpose of selecting a qualified arbitrator. If agreement cannot be reached, then either party may request Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to provide a list of five impartial persons qualified to act as arbitrators. The parties will meet within five calendar days after the receipt of such list. If the parties cannot mutually agree upon one of the listed arbitrators, the parties will each strike one arbitrator's name from the list of five and shall then repeat this procedure. The remaining person will be the duly selected arbitrator.

Section 3. If, for any reason, either party refuses to participate in the selection of an arbitrator, the other party may then choose any person from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service Roster to be the duly selected arbitrator.

Section 4. The arbitrator will limit his/her decision to the particular grievance in question. His/her decision will be issued as quickly as possible, after the conclusion of the hearing; unless the parties mutually agree to extend the time limit.

Section 5. The arbitrator's award will be final except that either party may file an appeal to the Federal Labor Relations authority subject to the authority regulations.

Section 6. Costs and fees of the arbitrator will be borne equally by Union and Management. Management agrees to pay attorney's fees when determined to be appropriate by the arbitrator in accordance with Chapter 71 of Title 5 of the United States Code.

Section 7. Transcripts: The cost of a transcript, requested by one party for its exclusive use and not shared, shall be borne by the requesting party. If it is mutually agreed to request a transcript, the cost will be borne equally.

Section 8. The arbitration hearing will be held, if possible, on the Management's premises at a time during the period Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Employee compensation while attending an arbitration hearing will be in accordance to current law, rule or government-wide regulation.

Section 9. Back Pay: Back pay for contractual violations or statutory infractions will be limited to no more than six months prior to the grievance, absent good cause demonstrated by the employee or union by the preponderance of evidence.
