PREAMBLE

In accordance with Chapter 71 of Title 5 United States Code (USC), hereafter referred to as the Statute, and subject to all applicable statutes and regulations, the following articles constitute an Agreement by and between the U.S. Army Installation Management Command (IMCOM), Fort Polk, Louisiana, hereinafter referred to as the Employer, and the National Association of Independent Labor, Local 10, hereinafter referred to as the Union. Together, these entities are referenced throughout this document as the Parties.

WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of the Parties to promote the efficient and effective administration of the Employer, the Federal Service, and the well-being of employees, to establish a basic understanding relative to the conditions of employment of employees within the meaning of the Statute, and to provide the means of amicable discussion and adjustment of matters of mutual interest to the Parties.

Wherever the personal pronouns, "he," "him," or "his" are used in this Agreement, they shall be construed as neutral in gender, that is, as meaning both "he and she," "him and her," or "his and hers."

NOW, therefore, the Parties agree hereto as follows:

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the public interest requires high standards of employee performance and the continual development and implementation of modern and progressive work practices to facilitate improved employee performance and efficiency; and

WHEREAS, the wellbeing of employees and efficient administration of the Government are benefited by providing employees an opportunity to participate in the formulation and implementation of personnel policies and practices affecting the conditions of their employment; and

WHEREAS, the participation of employees should be improved through the maintenance of constructive and cooperative relationships between labor organizations and management officials; and

WHEREAS, subject to law and the paramount requirements of public service, effective labor-management relations within the Federal service require a clear statement of the respective rights and obligations of the parties.

Utilization of the twenty (20) minute meal period will be held to the absolute minimum consistent with fund operations.

Section 5. Employees shall be allowed a rest period of fifteen (15) minutes during each four (4) hours of work, as near to the middle of the four (4) hours as practicable, at a time prescribed by the supervisors. If the period from the beginning of the daily tour of duty to the lunch period or from the lunch period to the end of the tour of duty is less than four (4) hours, a second rest period during the daily tour of duty will be granted only when the employee works an eight-hour day. These periods will not be used to extend employees' lunch periods or shorten workdays.

Section 6. Management will to the extent possible accommodate Regular employees who request not to be scheduled on the weekend.

Section 7. Call Back

- b. The requirement that employees make themselves available for emergency duty ordinarily will not extend beyond the requirement that they leave word at their homes as to where they may be reached.
- c. If more than one (1) employee possesses the required skills and qualifications, designations will be made on an equal rotating basis.
- d. Employees are expected to respond to call back assignments.
- e. The designation of employees to be available for call back is normally not a basis for additional compensation. - f. If an employee is called back to duty, a minimum of two (2) hours pay will be paid.

ARTICLE 21

OVERTIME

Section 1. Overtime for employees who are Pay Band is defined as time in a work status in excess of 40 hours per week in any one work week (periods of leave are not considered as hours worked). Overtime for non-exempt Crafts and Trade Employees is defined as time in a pay status in excess of 8 hours per day or 40 hours in any one work week whichever offers the greater benefit to the employee (periods of leave are considered as hours worked). Employees qualifying for overtime will have their time computed at one and one half (1½) times the regular rate of hourly pay. Regular employees may request compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay.

Section 2. Overtime shall be rotated equitably among employees in each work area (i.e., Recreation, Child Development Center, etc.) consistent with employee classification (i.e., maintenance workers, laborers, waitresses, etc.). Records of overtime worked and declined shall be maintained and made available to the Union upon written request.

Section 3. When overtime work is necessary to meet operational schedules, employees requested to work overtime will be given as much advance notice as possible. Management will normally solicit volunteers, but will use inverse seniority/least overtime hours worked when assigning involuntary overtime. When overtime must be performed by personnel already on duty, this is a special circumstance which the Parties recognize may occur.

Section 4. An employee called in to perform overtime shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours regardless of whether required to work the two (2) hours or not.

Section 5. Employees who are required to work overtime, without prior notice in emergency cases, will be allowed one (1) phone call without cost to the employee. The phone call will not exceed three (3) minutes.

ARTICLE 22

Less than 3 years service		5% of total hours worked
At least 3 but fewer than 15 years service	It's not the last PPE in the FY	7 1/2 % of total hours worked
At least 3 years but fewer than 15 years service	It is the last PPE in the FY	12 1/2% of total hours worked
More than 15 years		10% of total hours worked

Section 2. The Employer agrees to grant annual leave to Regular employees for the purpose of rest, relaxation, recreation, or for other justifiable reasons consistent with workload requirements. Approval of requests for annual leave for unforeseen emergency reasons will be considered as the circumstances warrant.

Section 3. The Employer agrees that all disapproved annual leave requests will be returned to the employee with a notation in writing as to the reasons for the disapproval.

Section 4. It is agreed that no employee shall be called back from leave unless no other qualified employee within the organizational element is reasonably available to perform the required duties.

Section 5. Employees unable to report for duty because of a personal emergency must request emergency annual leave by notifying the supervisor or designee, if available, no later than two hours after the start of their regular scheduled work shift, except where circumstances beyond the control of the employee precludes contact. CYS child care personnel must notify the leave approving official or designee by telephone of the absence prior to the beginning of their work day, except where circumstances beyond the control of the employee precludes the contact.

Section 6. All employees may submit projected annual leave schedules (1 to 30 days) for the leave year by the second Tuesday in February. The employee's needs and desires will be considered by the Employer. Seniority will be used when all requests for annual leave cannot be approved. Other annual leave will be on a first come, first serve basis.

Section 7. Regular days off immediately preceding and following vacation periods will generally be treated as part of the vacation schedule, to permit employees to include those days in their vacation plans. In the event of special events, if the regular day off falls on the special event, employees must receive approval to include that regular day off as part of their vacation periods.

ARTICLE 23

SICK LEAVE

Section 1. Regular employees earn sick leave at a rate of 5% of total hours worked. The Union joins the Employer in recognizing the insurance value of sick leave and agrees to encourage employees to conserve such leave so it will be available to them in case of extended illness.

Section 2. Sick leave, if accrued, shall be granted to employees when they are incapacitated from the performance of their duties provided that employees not reporting for work because of incapacitation for duty furnish notice to the supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, by telephone or other available means as soon as possible prior to the start of the employee's shift, but not later than two (2) hours after the start of the duty day except when unusual circumstances preclude such advance notification. Childcare personnel must notify the leave approving official or designee by telephone of the absence prior to the beginning of their work day except where circumstances beyond the control of the employee precludes the contact. Unless other arrangements have been made, requests for sick leave must be made on each day of absence.

Section 3. Sick leave, if available, shall be granted to employees in accordance with applicable regulations when they are incapacitated from performance of their duties by sickness, injury, or pregnancy and confinement, for medical, dental, or optical examinations or treatment; or when exposed to contagious disease as determined by certified health authorities, the presence of the employee at his post of duty would jeopardize the health of coworkers. Requests for sick leave for medical, dental, or optical examination or treatment will normally be submitted for approval at least three (3) workdays in advance of the appointment. The request must contain information as to the time, place, and date of the appointment.

Section 4. The Employer may grant sick leave only when the need for sick leave is supported by administratively acceptable evidence. The Employer may consider an employee's self-certification as to the reason for his absence as administratively acceptable evidence, regardless of the duration of the absence. The Employer may also require a medical certificate or other administratively acceptable evidence as to the reason for an absence for any of the purposes described in Section 3 for an absence in excess of three (3) workdays. The Employer may also require a medical certificate for an absence of less than three (3) workdays in accordance with 5 C.F.R. § 630.405(a).

Section 5. When in individual cases there is reason to believe that the sick leave privilege has been abused, a medical certificate may be required to justify the granting of sick leave thereafter. In such cases, the employee will be advised in writing that a medical certificate will be required to support a future grant of sick leave, regardless of duration.

Section 6. The Employer will review the official sick leave record of each employee required to furnish a doctor's certificate at least semi-annually from date of issue to determine whether or not this requirement remains necessary. The employee will be notified in writing if the letter of requirement will be withdrawn.

Section 7. The employee may request and the Employer may approve advance sick leave not to exceed 240 hours in established deserving cases of serious disability or ailment. Approval of such leave is subject to the following:

a. The employee furnishes written evidence from a physician or practitioner that the employee is expected to return to duty on a permanent basis;

b. The employee has exhausted all accumulated sick leave and any annual leave in excess of 240 hours;

c. There is no evidence indicating the employee will not remain employed after his return to duty long enough to repay the advanced sick leave;

d. The employee is not under a written medical certification requirement; and

e. If the employee is serving his probationary period, the advance leave should not be in excess of the amount that it is reasonably assured he will earn prior to the termination of his probationary period.

Section 8. When an employee is unable to perform the full range of his duties because of temporary medical incapacity, but is not required to remain home, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to assign work to the employee commensurate with his qualifications and the medical incapacity. If meaningful limited duties cannot be assigned to the employee, the employee may request to take either annual leave or leave without pay (LWOP) if sick leave has been exhausted.

Section 9. All employees' sick leave requests will be considered as personal need-to-know information. Official leave records will also be maintained in this respect.

ARTICLE 24

c. The use of FMLA leave shall not result in the loss of any employment benefits which accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave. The employee may be required to use accrued annual leave over 240 hours.

Section 4. The FFLA authorizes Regular full time employees up to 104 hours of sick leave per year and Regular part time employees an amount of sick leave equal to the number of hours sick leave normally accrued during a leave year to do the following:

a. provide care for a family member who is incapacitated by a medical or mental condition or attend to a family member receiving medical, dental, or optical examination or treatment; or

b. make arrangements necessitated by the death of a family member or attend the funeral of a family member.

Leave for bone marrow and organ donation is a separate category of leave that is in addition to annual and sick leave. Except in emergency cases, such absences must be requested by the employee in advance of the absence. The employee must be attending judicial proceedings as a juror or witness on behalf of either party if the U.S Government, the District of Columbia, or a state or local government is a party. An employee who is summoned as a witness in an official capacity on behalf of the Federal Government is on official duty, not Court Leave.

Section 4. An employee who is granted court leave will collect all fees for such service and forward them, exclusive of transportation, meals, or expense allowances, to the Custodian of the employing NAFI.

Section 5. When an employee's witness service is not in connection with a judicial proceeding to which a government entity is a party, and that service is not associated with the employee's official capacity, the employee's absence from duty must be charged to annual leave or LWOP, and the employee may accept fees and expenses incidental thereto.

Such LWOP may only be granted to eligible employees whose performance is rated satisfactory or better. Employees must make a written request for the LWOP. They will also be required to complete part E, block 2, of a SF-52 listing a termination date effective no later than the first day after completion of the first 180 days of LWOP. In special cases, when the Employer determines that an employee can be spared to donate blood but cannot be spared from work for a period of four (4) hours, the employee must be so informed in sufficient time for the employee to decide whether or not he wishes to make the donation under those circumstances. Section 1. The Employer agrees that employees will normally be assigned work which is appropriate to their position description taking into account the mission of the Agency. Section 2. The Employer agrees that position descriptions will be written based upon the duties and responsibilities assigned to positions. Employees will be furnished a copy of their position description initially and as changes are made.

Section 3. Each employee shall be afforded the opportunity to discuss with the Employer his position description to determine if the description is accurate. During these discussions, the employee may be accompanied by a Union representative, if requested. Employees will be furnished a copy of any changed position descriptions. If the performance has not sufficiently improved and the Employer is proposing corrective administrative action, the Employer will give the Regular, non-probationary employee a written notice of the proposed corrective action which would result in a change to a lower grade level or separation. Such action will be given to the Regular, non-probationary employee at least 30 days in advance of effecting the proposed action. This procedure is designed to provide an ethical, orderly, and equitable means for resolving grievances.

Section 2. Unit employees covered by this Agreement may present a grievance which may be processed with or without Union representation at the grievant's discretion. However, the Union shall have the right to have its representative present at the grievance meetings. This right to individual presentation does not include the right to take the matter to arbitration, unless the Union agrees to do so.

Section 3. This Article provides procedures for the processing of grievances relating to the interpretation and/or application of this Agreement, and to matters relating to personnel policies, practices and working conditions which fall within the discretionary authority of the Employer. This shall be the sole procedure available for processing covered grievances.

An employee or group of employees in the unit may only be represented by themselves or the Union in filing a grievance under this negotiated procedure.

Section 7. If two or more employees initiate identical grievances, where the basis for the grievance and corrective action being sought are identical, the Union, if it has been designated as the representative, will call the employees together and have them select one of the grievances for processing. The decision made on the grievance selected for processing will be equally applicable to all of the other identical grievances.

Section 8. Reasonable official time will be granted to aggrieved unit employees to investigate, prepare and/or present a grievance through this Negotiated Grievance Procedure.

Section 9. Once a grievance has been accepted for processing under this Grievance Procedure, failure of the aggrieved employee or the Union to comply with any applicable time limit will terminate further consideration of the grievance, except as otherwise provided herein. Failure of the Employer to comply with any applicable processing time will constitute a valid basis for the grievance being advanced to the next higher step of this Grievance Procedure. However, any time limits stated in this Article may be extended by mutual written agreement between the Employer and the Union. Absent extraordinary circumstances, extensions will not exceed five (5) workdays.

Section 10. A grievance by the employee, Union, or the Employer shall be filed within ten (10) work days of the occurrence or awareness, whichever occurs later, of the incident being grieved, except for extenuating circumstances, such as an unavoidable or an authorized absence of the aggrieved. Should extenuating circumstances preclude adherence to the above-stated time constraints, written reasons will be submitted with the grievance.

Section 11. Employee grievances shall be processed as follows:

Step I. Employees shall first take up a grievance with their immediate supervisor. The employee may choose to have a Union representative. The following shall be specified in writing:

- a. The basis for the grievance;
 - b. The date of the occurrence or awareness of the incident being grieved;
- and

The immediate supervisor shall make a reasonable effort to resolve the grievance and will hold a meeting with the grievant and Union representative and render a written decision or findings/conclusions to the employee within ten (10) work days of the date the employee submitted the grievance.

Step 2. Should resolution not occur at Step 1, the employee may submit the grievance for further consideration by filing the grievance within ten (10) work days of receipt of the Step I decision to the second line supervisor.

The second line supervisor or designee, will meet within five (5) work days with the aggrieved employee and Union representative(s) to discuss the grievance. The second line supervisor, or designee, will render a written decision within ten (10) work days from the date of the meeting.

- a. The basis for the grievance;

Within five (5) work days, a meeting shall be held to discuss the grievance. The Commander, or designee, shall issue a written decision within ten (10) work days of the meeting.

Section 14. The parties agree to consider the use of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) grievance mediation services. Grievance mediation must be requested in writing within ten (10) work days following the last step in the Grievance Procedure. Grievance mediation, if used, must be by mutual consent. Neither party is obligated to use this service; nor shall the voluntary, mutual consent to use the service limit a Party's right to invoke arbitration at a later date. If the Parties agree to use grievance mediation, they must submit a joint, signed request, asking for FMCS assistance. Such request will be made with the understanding that grievance mediation is an informal process intended as a supplement to and not a substitute for the arbitration process. The Parties also agree that if grievance mediation is used, it shall be conducted at the discretion of the FMCS and that the Parties agree to follow the guidelines, which entitle a grievant to be present at the mediation conference. The Mediator has no authority to compel resolution of the grievance. If the grievance is not settled during the mediation process, the matter may proceed on to arbitration. Nothing said or done by the Parties or the Mediator during mediation can be entered as evidence or used against them during any subsequent arbitration proceedings. Furthermore, the parties agree to hold FMCS, and the Mediator appointed by the Service to conduct the mediation conference, harmless of any claim of damages arising from the mediation process.

The request to invoke arbitration must be in writing and must be received by the Commander or the Union President within fifteen (15) work days of the date of receipt of the final grievance decision or conclusion of grievance mediation. Only the Parties to this Agreement may invoke arbitration.

Section 2. Within ten (10) work days after receipt of the arbitration request, the Employer and the Union will jointly request that the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service submit a list of seven (7) impartial persons qualified to act as arbitrators. The party invoking the arbitration will initially pay the appropriate list fee. The fee will be split if there is a split decision. The losing party shall otherwise be responsible for the fee. Unless agreed otherwise, representatives of the Union and the Employer will meet within ten (10) work days after receipt of such a list. A representative of the Union and a representative of the Employer will each strike one arbitrator's name from the list of seven (7); they will then repeat this procedure. The remaining name will be the duly selected arbitrator. A flip of a coin will decide which Party strikes first.

Section 3. The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall be empowered to make a direct designation of an arbitrator to hear the case in the event:

- a. either party refuses to participate in the selection of an Arbitrator; or
- b. upon inaction or undue delay on the part of either party.

Section 4. The parties will in good faith attempt to define the issue. If complete agreement cannot be reached on the issue prior to arbitration, the parties will present their respective issues to the Arbitrator at the hearing. The Arbitrator will then determine the issue to be heard.

Section 5. Grievability and arbitability of issues, if unresolved, will be handled as threshold issues at Arbitration. Grievability or arbitability issues must be raised in writing to the other party within ten (10) work days after arbitration is invoked.

Section 6. The parties will make a good faith effort in scheduling the arbitration. Once the arbitration date is set, if one of the parties seeks to change the date, that party is responsible for paying the cancellation fee, if any. Section 8. Witnesses who are not located within the continental United States may appear telephonically or via video teleconference.

Section 9. The Arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be borne by the losing party. The Arbitrator shall determine the losing Party. If there is a split decision in which neither Party can be designated as the losing Party, the fees and expenses will be shared equally by the Employer and the Union. Where the Union and the Employer mutually request, a transcript or the arbitrator requests a transcript, the expenses will be shared; otherwise the party requesting the transcript shall bear the expense. The Employer and the Union shall share equally the expenses of any mutually agreed upon services.

Section 10. The arbitration hearing will be on the Employer's premises during the Employer's regular administrative working hours. Each person authorized to attend the arbitration hearing who is employed by the Employer and who is on active duty status at the time the hearing is held will be excused from duty to participate in the arbitration proceedings without loss of pay or charge to annual leave. When necessary, an employee's shift will be adjusted to accommodate presence at the hearing in a duty status.

Section 11. The Arbitrator will be requested to render a decision not later than thirty (30) calendar days after conclusion of the hearing, unless the parties agree otherwise.

Section 12. The Arbitrator will not change, modify, alter, delete, or add to the provisions of this Agreement; this right is the prerogative of the Union and the Employer only.
