Step 2. The step 2 management official will meet with the aggrieved Employee(s) and their Union representative to discuss the grievance within seven (7) calendar days from the date they receive the grievance. The step 2 management official will render a written decision within seven (7) calendar days from date of the grievance meeting.

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, the matter may be submitted in writing to the Step 3 Management Official or their designated representative within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the Step 2 decision.

Step 3. Prior to rendering a final decision, the step 3 management official will meet with the aggrieved Employee(s) and their Union representative to discuss the grievance within seven (7) calendar days from the date they receive the grievance. The step 3 management official will render a written decision within seven (7) calendar days from date of the grievance meeting.

For an Employee(s) not represented by the Union a copy of all negotiated grievance decisions rendered by Management will be provided to the Union within seven (7) calendar days.

Section 10. Employer grievances shall be filed in writing with the Union President or designee at SWRMC. The grievance shall specify the basis for the grievance and the corrective relief sought. The Parties will meet and discuss the grievance. The Union shall issue a written decision within ten (10) calendar days of the grievance meeting.

Section 11. Union grievances shall be filed in writing with the Executive Director by the Union President or designee of the Union. The grievance shall specify the basis for the grievance and the corrective relief sought. A meeting will be held to discuss the grievance. The Executive Director or designee shall provide a written decision within ten (10) calendar days of the grievance meeting. If the grievance is not resolved at this stage, a meeting will be held to discuss the grievance.

Section 12. Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). The Parties may mutually agree to utilize the ADR process prior to escalating a grievance to arbitration. ADR will be facilitated by a certified mediator who is sufficiently removed from the situation to not have a conflict of interest.

When the parties involved reach resolution, that agreement shall be recorded in writing, signed by all parties, and considered binding to the extent not inconsistent with government wide regulations or law. A copy of the resolution shall be provided to the parties and servicing HRO.

At any time during the ADR process, any involved party may determine that the ADR process has failed and may withdraw in writing from the ADR process. Once such a withdrawal has been made, the Union has ten (10) calendar days to refer the unresolved grievance to arbitration.

Section 13. Arbitrability/Grievability. In the event either party should declare a grievance non-grievable or nonarbitrable, the original grievance will be considered amended to include this issue. An issue of arbitrability and/or grievability may be invoked only during the grievance procedure process,

ARTICLE 14

ARBITRATION

Section 1. Invocation. Only grievances that have not been resolved through the grievance procedure may be submitted to Arbitration. Arbitration may only be invoked by the Union or the Employer by submitting a written notice of intent to arbitrate to the other party no later than fourteen (14) calendar days following receipt of the final written grievance disposition or determination, or fourteen (14) calendar days following the date such response was due. If an arbitration notice is mailed to the other party, it shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested should return receipt be desired, and shall be deemed to have been served on the date of certified mailing. The time limits under this Section may be extended by mutual agreement. Approval by employee(s) involved in or affected by a grievance is not required before arbitration is invoked.

Section 2. Selection of the Arbitrator. The Parties may mutually agree upon an arbitrator. If the parties do not agree on an arbitrator, the Party requesting arbitration (moving party) shall request from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) a list of seven (7) arbitrators within twenty-one (21) calendar days of invoking arbitration. The cost associated with obtaining a list from FMCS shall be borne equally by the parties. If the parties use the FMCS list, they shall meet (or confer by telephone) within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the list to select an arbitrator. The parties will alternately strike one arbitrator's name from the list until one name remains. A flip of a coin will determine which party will strike the first name. The non-moving party will flip the coin. The moving party will call heads or tails. If the moving party is successful in calling the correct result of the coin flip, they will have the choice to strike first or require the non-moving party to strike first. The coin-flip will take place at a mutually convenient location with a representative present from each party present. If the moving party refuses, delays or fails to participate in the selection process within the aforementioned timeframe, the grievance appeal will be considered terminated and withdrawn. If the nonmoving party refuses, delays or fails to participate in the selection process within the aforementioned timeframe, the moving party may select the arbitrator from the list and set the arbitration date unilaterally. The time limits under this Section may be extended by mutual agreement without being considered a delay.

Section 3. Setting the Hearing. Once selection of an arbitrator is made in accordance with Section 2 of this Article, the moving party shall have the responsibility of contacting the selected arbitrator and obtaining available dates for the hearing. The hearing must be at least forty-five (45) calendar days from the date on which the parties agreed on the arbitrator. Once available dates are received from the arbitrator, the parties will mutually agree on a specific date for the hearing. If for any reason the selected arbitrator becomes unavailable, the last arbitrator to have been struck will be contacted and the procedure in this section will begin again, until an arbitrator with available dates has been selected. Should no arbitrator on the list be selected due to unavailability, then a new list will be generated in accordance with Section 2 of this Article, with the date the parties learned the last arbitrator was unavailable as the "invoking arbitration" date.

Section 4. Pre-Hearing Conference. Within at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the Arbitration date, representatives of the Union and Employer will hold a pre-hearing conference. The purpose of this conference is to attempt to agree on the issue or issues to be decided, stipulations of fact, witnesses (to include expected testimony), and to exchange documentary evidence thus far developed. Any documentary evidence available at the time of the pre-hearing conference that is not exchanged is excluded unless there is good cause as determined by the arbitrator. Any grievability/arbitrability issues that are still pending will be discussed at this time. This provision may be amended on a case by case basis by mutual agreement.

Section 5. Moving Papers. In the event the parties are able to agree on issue(s) and stipulations of fact, a joint submission statement will be developed and forwarded to the arbitrator along with all the moving documents generated by either party as of the invocation of arbitration. If the parties are unable to agree on an issue(s), each party will serve upon the other and the arbitrator, its version of the issue(s) along with all the moving documents generated by either party as of the invocation of arbitration. These submissions will be submitted within fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the arbitration. The arbitrator shall determine the issue(s) to be heard in the case of the parties submitting separate submissions.

Section 6. Time and Location. Arbitration hearings will be held on the Employer's premises during regular day shift hours of the normal basic workweek. In the event the parties agree to hold the hearing at facilities not under control of the Employer, the cost of such hearing facilities will be borne equally by the Employer and the Union.

Section 7. Proceedings. The procedures to conduct an arbitration hearing shall be determined by the arbitrator. When an employee initiated grievance is being arbitrated, the grieving employee (or a representative employee in the case of an employee-group grievance) shall be in a pay status for the duration of the hearing if otherwise in a duty status. The Union's representative, who does not include a technical representative, if employed by the Command, will be on official time during the arbitration hearing if otherwise in a duty status. Employee witnesses having direct knowledge of the case and necessary for a full and complete hearing will be in a pay status if otherwise in a duty status to the extent necessary to permit their testimony. If there is a dispute as to the relevance of a witness, the arbitrator will determine whether or not they will testify. Witnesses will only be on official time if they are regularly in a duty status during the time of the hearing. The Union will notify the Employer fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the arbitration hearing as to the witnesses that they intent to call to testify at the hearing. The Employer will arrange to have all employee witnesses available and on the correct status and confirm with the Union or employee at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the hearing.

Section 8. Decision. The arbitrator will be requested to render his/her decision as quickly as possible. An arbitrator shall not change, modify, alter, delete, or add to the provisions of this Agreement, but the arbitrator shall have full authority to provide a remedy appropriate to resolve the grievance, including but not limited to an award of back pay, restoration of leave or other benefits, interest, and reasonable attorney fees or other monetary or non-monetary make whole remedy to the extent authorized by controlling law and regulation.

Section 9. Appeal. The arbitrator's decision is binding on the parties to this Agreement; however, either party may file an exception to the decision with the Federal Labor Relations Authority within 30 calendar days.

Section 10. Costs of the Arbitration. The compensation and expense of the Arbitrator and Arbitration shall be borne equally by the Parties.

Section 11. Grievability/Arbitrability. Should either the Union or the Employer raise a question of grievability/arbitrability, they must submit their intent to raise such an issue at least fifteen (15) calendar days after the request to invoke arbitration, including a request to use a different arbitrator on the grievability/arbitrability issue. Failure to take a request will be considered a waiver of the issue. If such an issue is raised the party raising the issue must submit request to dismiss including an argument in writing at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the Arbitration. The opposing party will then have twenty (20) calendar days to file a response to a request for dismissal based on arbitrability. Failure to abide by the time frames will result in waiver or dismissal. The arbitrator will be requested to render a decision with rationale on the issue of grievability/arbitrability prior to commencing a hearing and considering any other issue raised in the case. If the Arbitrator determines the matter grievable/arbitrable, the hearing will then go forward as scheduled on the remaining issues; if he/she finds the matter not grievable/arbitrable, the grievance shall be withdrawn. Should any party request that separate arbitrators be utilized for grievability/arbitrability issues and for merit issues then that party will bear the cost of having such an arbitrator who will be selected in accordance with Section 2 of this Article.

Section 12. Scope of Proceedings. The Parties agree that the issue(s) to be arbitrated shall be no broader in scope than the issue(s) presented during the last Step of the grievance procedure, except that the Parties would not be precluded from introducing procedural and background material that is necessary and relevant. Documents or other evidence which were not made a part of the last step of the grievance processes will not be allowed to be submitted at hearing unless they were not available at the time of the last step of the grievance process, or there is good cause to allow their admission. This Section is inapplicable to any amendment made.

Section 13. Transcripts of Hearing. No arbitrator has the authority to compel the taking of a transcript. If the parties mutually agree to the need for an official transcript, the cost will be equally shared by the parties. If only one party wants an official transcript or recording, the requesting party will pay for the cost of the transcript or recording and no copy will be made available to the other party.
