Phase I is HRO in processing completed on their first day of work, Phase II are Finance and payroll procedures covered by the Finance office and Communication briefings. Phase III is specific information to the employees work center and is covered by the immediate supervisor.

ARTICLE 10

BASIC WORK WEEK - HOURS OF WORK

10-1 FOCUS

The following work schedules are authorized for the bargaining members of the Wyoming Air National Guard here at home station. These options are for the purpose of providing flexibility to supervisors in scheduling their employees for the most efficient management of the workforce while still providing the opportunity for quality of life for our members. In ALL cases, mission accomplishment remains the primary focus.

10-2 RESPONSIBILITY

- a. It is the responsibility of the direct Supervisor to efficiently manage the personnel under his/her supervision to ensure effective accomplishment of required tasks in their shop or section to meet mission needs, and to provide the necessary services to keep the operational capability of the Wyoming Air National Guard at peak efficiency. The supervisor, with input from the respective employees under their control, will assess mission requirements and choose a work schedule option that maximizes mission accomplishment while providing each employee sufficient time off to be with family and friends.
- b. It is recognized that due to the number of employees in a particular section, the nature of the work being done, or the mission focus within a particular work center/section, that not all of the available work schedule options will be practical or useable. It is up to the section supervisor to determine what schedules will be used/offered. Regardless of what work schedules are implemented by a particular supervisor, they should be done so in a manner which is fair and equitable to all employees within that supervisor's control.
- c. It is the responsibility of the supervisor to assure that the TAG form 15-E will be completed and on file in the supervisor folder for each individual they supervise. In certain circumstances, employees may request a schedule change to accommodate their changing needs. Under conditions of significant personal hardship, non-standard schedules may be considered and approved as long as required work can still be completed.

10-3. WYMD STANDARD WORK SCHEDULE

- a. The 5-4/9 “Phoenix” work schedule is the standard for the WYMD; it is the expected core hours most employees will work. It is clearly defined and the scheduled work days are published annually by HRO. In each two week pay period, employees will work eight 9-hour days, one 8 hour day, and have every other Friday off. Employees may elect one of the following lunch break schedules:
 - 0700 to 1700 with a 1 hour lunch break
 - 0700 to 1630 with a 30 minute lunch break
 - 0730 to 1700 with a 30 minute lunch break.Variations up to 2 hours in start times may be considered.
- b. It is expected that all work centers/sections will have coverage in their respective sections during the times outlined as the WYMD standard work schedule. These should be considered the core hours. Exceptions may be sought through the 153AW/CC for certain “non-service” oriented functional sections for mission needs.

10-4 OPTIONAL WORK SCHEDULES

- a. The optional 5-4/9 work schedule is described as follows. In each two week pay period, employees will work eight 9-hour days, one 8 hour day, and have a declared (not necessarily Friday) day off during the pay period. Employees may elect one of the following schedules:
 - a. 0700 to 1700 with a 1 hour lunch break
 - b. 0700 to 1630 with a 30 minute lunch break
 - c. 0730 to 1700 with a 30 minute lunch break.
 - d. Variations in start time up to 2 hours may be considered.
- b. The 10/8 work schedule is described as follows. In each two week pay period, employees will work ten 8-hour days. Employees may elect one of the following schedules:
 - a. 0700 to 1600 with a 1 hour lunch break
 - b. 0700 to 1530 with a 30 minute lunch break
 - c. 0730 to 1600 with a 30 minute lunch break.
 - d. Variations in start time up to 2 hours may be considered.
 - e. Note: This work schedule meets the core hour requirement for shop coverage.
- c. Starting and ending shift times can be negotiated as long as the correct number of hours per day are worked and will result in a full 80-hour pay period.
- d. Lunch breaks will be taken between the hours of 1100 and 1300 daily when using the core or optional work schedules. Once an employee elects one of these schedules, it becomes their daily schedule. Employees may not change schedules or lunch breaks on a day-to-day basis.
- e. Section supervisors may require a change in standard work schedules for their employees if it becomes apparent that their work center is not meeting mission requirements. A change to standard work schedules may also be dictated by mission requirements for deployments away from home station. Employees may request a schedule change to accommodate their changing needs or in circumstances of personal hardship. Supervisors are encouraged to work with their employees to agree on a work schedule that best meets the needs of the agency and the desires of the employee. The TAG form 15-E will be completed and on file in the supervisor folder for each individual.

10-5 MODIFIED START WORK SHIFT

- a. Due to temporary fluctuations in needs of the Agency, the Section Supervisor may direct and schedule, a modified start shift. Under this provision, the supervisor may modify shift start time up to 5 working hours to extend coverage of a duty day for a particular section. (i.e. completion of HSC, Post Dock, ISO, exercise, or deployment). This decision should be made with the full knowledge and agreement of next higher level of supervision. Every effort will be made to give maximum notice. A situation, which imposes immediate and unforeseen work requirements as a result of natural phenomena, critical or emergency mission related circumstances beyond the agency's reasonable control or ability to anticipate, are excluded from the notice requirement. We agree to comply with the requirements of 5 CFR 610.121.
- b. The modified shift will not normally run more than five consecutive work days.
- c. The modified shift should be used minimally and as justifiable. It is the section supervisor responsibility to assure that all employees in their section(s) are treated equitably when using this provision.

10-6 DUTY ON SCHEDULED DAY OFF

Supervisors who occasionally require employees to report for duty on a scheduled day off, should ensure those employees are compensated in accordance with applicable personnel guidelines. If scheduled properly; Comp time, AT, UTA/AFTP can be authorized for use.

10-7 SHIFT/SCHEDULE CHANGE NOTIFICATION

The Agency may consider and institute alternative work shift/schedules to support mission requirements. The supervisor to the best of their knowledge will distinguish to the employee whether the shift/schedule change is temporary or permanent. The supervisor shall seek and select volunteers based on mission requirements and personnel availability prior to assigning individuals.

- a. Temporary - Technicians will be notified of temporary shift/schedule changes no less than one (1) pay period in advance.
- b. Permanent - Technicians will be notified of permanent shift/schedule changes no less than two (2) pay periods in advance.

10-8 ON CALL

Time spent in an on-call status does not constitute hours of work and technicians in this category are not entitled to additional compensation.

10-9 CALL-BACK

Call-back: Irregular or occasional overtime work performed by a technician on a day when work was not scheduled, or for which they are required to return to their place of employment, is deemed at least two (2) hours in duration for the purpose of compensation. If the employee can satisfy the requirements of the reason for callback from their current location (i.e. phone consultation), they are to be compensated with comp time for the time they actually spent conducting official business. There is no 2 hour minimum in cases where the employee did not return to their place of work.

10-10 STANDBY

An employee is considered to be on standby duty if they are: (1) restricted to the agency's premises, or so close to the premises that the employee cannot use the time effectively for their own purposes; or (2) restricted to their living quarters or designated post of duty, and has their activities substantially limited, and is required to remain in a state of readiness to perform work. Standby duty constitutes hours of work for which the employee is entitled to compensation.

10-11 BREAK TIME

Two (2) fifteen minute rest periods are authorized for each employee during the duty day. One rest period is authorized before the lunch break and one rest period is authorized after the lunch break. 10-13 ENVIRONMENTAL PAY

Environmental differential pay requests will be handled IAW WY TPP 532 dated 29 June 1998. All differentials presently paid will remain in effect for the duration of this agreement unless it is agreed by the Human Resources Office and the TA that the hazard has been removed. The agency agrees to publish the EDP/HDP committee meeting schedule on the 153AW HRO SharePoint calendar. The TA President may send a delegate if unable to attend due to mission requirements.

ARTICLE 11

POSITION DESCRIPTION

11-1 POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position descriptions will be an accurate listing of the major duties that are required by the employer to be performed by the affected technician(s). Additional information contained in regulatory guidelines and this article will be used to ensure equal treatment of all employees covered by this agreement; both are available via electronic media.

11-2 OTHER DUTIES AS ASSIGNED

Any “other duties as assigned” will be assigned by or through the employee’s immediate supervisor. The agency recognizes that the employee’s workload increases when adding duties, and agrees to prioritize these duties with the employee upon request. “Other duties as assigned” as part of the position description (PD) should be reasonably related to the employee’s position, and qualifications. This does not preclude management from assigning additional, though unrelated, duties. If unrelated duties are assigned on a routine basis, the PD should be amended to include such duties. Additional duties will be managed IAW NGB TPR 430.

11-3 ADDITIONAL DUTIES

Any additional duties will be assigned by or through the employee’s immediate supervisor. There are vacancies that exist from time to time that are not or cannot be filled due to management decisions; these duties may be equitably distributed among the remaining work force within the area of concern on a fair and equitable basis. The agency will continue to exercise its efforts in good faith, subject to requirements of efficient operations.

ARTICLE 12

DETAILING OF TECHNICIANS

12-1 DEFINITION

Details are administered in accordance with WYMD 335, Merit Placement Plan and this agreement. The agency may detail employees for any legitimate management purpose, for example, to handle unexpected workloads or special projects; to fill in during another employee’s absence; for training; or pending position classification, security clearance or investigation.

12-2 PROCEDURE

Management realizes and acknowledges that details of technicians out of their assigned positions must be used in a judicious manner. Detailing of employees will not be used to circumvent Article 17 of this contract, Discipline and Adverse actions.

12-3 RECORDING OF DETAILS

The Agency will use a SF 52, Notification of Personnel Action, to document details more than 30 days. Copies of the SF 52 are available in My Biz.

12-4 TEMPORARY PROMOTION

- a. When the agency requires the duties of a higher grade position, or one with known promotion potential to be performed for more than 120 days, Merit Placement procedures will apply.
- b. The Agency agrees that when budget and mission requirements permit, temporary promotions will be effected in lieu of details to higher graded positions.

ARTICLE 13

TECHNICIAN PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

13-1 INTRODUCTION

This article and NGB TPR 430 govern the Technician Performance Management System to ensure equitable treatment of all employees covered by this agreement; both are available via electronic media. The objective of the Technician Performance Management System is to 1) provide a meaningful and efficient method for the evaluation of individual and organizational performance; 2) to provide tools for executing management and supervisory responsibilities; 3) to communicate and clarify organizational goals and objectives to technicians; 4) to involve technicians in improving organizational effectiveness and in accomplishing organizational missions and goals; and 5) to assess individual and organizational effectiveness and performance. The performance management system will be accomplished in accordance with NGB TPR 430 as well as any other applicable Regulations, Laws, or Directives as agreed to and Impact and Implementation (I&I) bargained with the TA. The Wyoming National Guard Incentive Awards Program WYMD TPR 451 will be utilized in conjunction with the Performance Management System.

13-2 THE APPRAISAL

All bargaining unit employees will have their appraisals done in PAA (Performance Appraisal Application).

- a. Appraisals will not be back-dated.
- b. A rating of record shall be given to each employee NLT 30 days after the end of the appraisal period.
- c. Filing an Appeal. A bargaining unit member desiring to dispute a performance appraisal must use the negotiated grievance procedure in Article 19 of this Agreement, IAW NGB TPR 430.

13-3 APPRAISALS OF TA OFFICIALS

The time spent by TA representatives in the performance of their representational duties will not be taken into account when accomplishing a performance appraisal. Rather, the performance appraisal will be based solely on performance of their officially assigned work.

13-4 UNACCEPTABLE PERFORMANCE

- a. Performance appraisal programs require that managers and supervisors provide proactive assistance to technicians to improve unacceptable performance. Assistance should be provided at any time during the appraisal period that performance is determined to be unacceptable or faltering in one or more critical elements.
- b. Supervisors are required to provide assistance to non-probationary employees with performance problems before the employee's performance falls below 2, marginally acceptable. Employees with performance problems must be given the opportunity to demonstrate acceptable performance. Supervisors will use tools available to assist employee's performance success such as Individual Development Plan (IDP), counseling and mentoring, before a PIP is considered. Documentation of performance counseling sessions is required.
- c. Programs shall provide for reassigning, reducing in grade, or removing employees who continue to have unacceptable performance, but only after an opportunity to demonstrate acceptable performance. Programs shall also provide for review and approval of unacceptable ratings of record by a higher level management official. Supervisors are required to contact HRO before placing an employee on a PIP (performance improvement plan).

13-5 RECORDS

Official performance records and other official employee records are available for review by the technician in My Biz. These include, but are not limited to, performance standards, appraisals, incentive awards, determinations, merit promotion material, trial/probationary period certification, and other related personnel management documents. During routing of performance appraisals, only individuals directly in the technician's chain of command, are permitted to review performance appraisals in the Performance Appraisal Application (PAA). This applies even after the final action has been accomplished.

ARTICLE 14

TEMPORARY DUTY ASSIGNMENT (TDY)

14-1 GENERAL

Temporary Duty Assignments performed in technician status are covered by this article and the applicable government regulations to ensure equal treatment of all employees covered by this agreement; both are available via electronic media. TDY will be announced as soon as information on the assignment is available, providing as much notice to employees as possible. Selection of employees for temporary duty assignments will be based upon official necessity and qualifications of an individual who can best perform the mission required without regard to gender, race, religion or national origin. The use of “trip boards” are acceptable in order to assist employees with their scheduling needs. Employees are responsible for responding to temporary duty assignments in the same manner as to duties at their permanent duty station. The agency agrees to attempt to ensure that problems created by TDY assignments will have a minimum impact on the morale of the employee. Information on the assignment will be made known on a continuing basis to affected employee(s) as it becomes available.

14-2 ASSIGNMENT OF QUALIFIED EMPLOYEE

The Agency will determine what qualifications are required based on the mission requirements of the TDY. If a “trip board” is not applicable, qualified volunteer(s) will be sought before an employee is directed to go TDY. When no volunteer(s) or an inadequate number of volunteers are available, the agency will make a selection(s) based on the requirements of the mission. Other factors, such as military leave availability (if applicable), will be considered when these decisions are made, if possible.

14-3 STATUS

Employee will designate what status they desire for the TDY unless status is not optional. If necessary, leave status in technician position will be in accordance with the leave articles of this agreement.

14-4 WORK SCHEDULES

If available, a proposed work schedule and schedule of events for the TDY will be announced. TDY work schedules will be based on known work requirements. Employees in a military status will be on appropriate leave (military, annual, compensatory, or LWOP) from their technician positions. Work schedules will not be adjusted to avoid charging military leave.

14-5 WORKING CONDITIONS

The agency agrees that every reasonable effort will be made to insure that adequate numbers of personnel will support each TDY to ensure the health, safety, welfare, and morale of each employee.

14-6 COMPENSATORY TIME

Time spent on actual work when directed and performed while supporting the mission when away from the permanent duty station is “hours worked” not only on normal workdays during normal working hours but also during non-work days. Compensatory time will not be granted solely for the purpose of compensating employees for being away from their home or official duty station during a non-duty day when not performing actual work. Time involved while traveling will be compensated as hours of work when permitted by governing regulations. When the work schedule or the administration of work cannot be controlled, any technician required to work or travel on other than normal duty hours will receive hour-for-hour compensatory time. Travel will be arranged within the employee's scheduled hours of work if at all possible.

ARTICLE 15

HEALTH, SAFETY, AND WELFARE

15-1 GENERAL

It is acknowledged that certain tasks necessarily performed involve a degree of hazard. The agency agrees to make every reasonable effort to provide briefings, instructions, training, or schooling, and to make available safety devices or precautions prior to requiring employees to perform duties of a hazardous nature in accordance with OSHA and AFOSH Standards and regulations.

15-2 153 AW ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH COUNCIL

- a. The 153 AW Environmental Safety and Occupational Health Council has been established to provide a forum for discussion of safety/health problems and to make recommendations to the Air Commander on safety/health related matters.
- b. The Council meets quarterly to discuss safety/health problems and to resolve Hazard Reports, AF Form 3s, and related issues that are not resolved at a lower level.

15-3 WORKERS COMPENSATION

- a. Technicians will immediately report job related injuries or illness to their supervisor. The supervisor and the technician will insure proper reporting procedures are followed and that all necessary documents are completed. When the technician is incapacitated and unable to notify the supervisor of injury or illness, the immediate supervisor will initiate required procedures as soon as they are aware that a situation of this type has occurred. Local processing of workers compensation claims will be coordinated with the HRO. HRO will be available to assist the employee in all situations involving federal worker's compensation issues. The agency will advise the employee of entitlements and obligations under the Federal Employee's Compensation Act (FECA) in the event of a worker's compensation claim.
- b. It is understood that the Labor Organization and the Agency wish to promote a safe and healthy environment for the entire workforce. To this end, the Agency and the TA will participate in and support the FECA council.

15-4 EXTREME COLD

The agency and the TA mutually recognize the hazards of working in extremely cold temperatures and acknowledge that, under extenuating circumstances, the necessity for accomplishing mission

Each employee is responsible to ensure the adequacy of cold weather gear worn and to make full and proper use of all such protective equipment prior to venturing out in extreme temperatures. The agency will provide authorized foul/cold weather protective gear to technicians at no cost.

- a. It is agreed that the Operations Supervisor in conjunction with the Flight Line Supervisor and the MOC may cancel flight line operations for local training/proficiency if the wind chill falls below –20 degrees Fahrenheit or the static temperature falls below 0 degrees Fahrenheit.
- b. The official temperature and wind velocity will be obtained from the Bio-environmental Office or Control Tower.
- c. Management acknowledges that there are certain cold factors beyond which employees are incapable of performing sustained work. It is realized that tolerance between individuals differ and that the type of outside work being accomplished affects the body heat generated by a worker, therefore, common sense must be applied.

15-5 EXTREME HEAT

The employer and the TA mutually recognize the hazards of working in extremely hot temperatures, while at the same time acknowledge the necessity for accomplishing certain tasks to varying degree even in the most extreme temperatures. Heat index notification will be by the Bio-environmental Office.

- a. Management acknowledges that there are certain heat factors beyond which employees are incapable of performing sustained work.
- b. It is realized that tolerance between individuals differ and that type of outside work being accomplished affects the body heat generated by a worker, therefore, common sense must be applied when considering maximum exposure time.

15-6 TDY SAFETY

When technicians are sent out to repair an aircraft or other equipment at other than home station, full consideration will be given by the agency to the method, the means, and the appropriate number of personnel needed to accomplish the repair. Consideration will be given to both expeditious job accomplishment and safety of personnel.

15-7 SAFETY GLASSES AND PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

The agency will furnish at no cost to the employee, safety eyeglasses, including those with prescription lenses if needed, when requested and approved by the Base Safety Office. The technician will furnish a current eyeglass prescription for initial use or a new prescription for an updated pair if their vision changes. Issued safety glasses will be supplied or replaced at no cost to the employee in accordance with appropriate regulations. The individual may select either plain or tinted lenses. The agency will provide all safety clothing and equipment necessary to safely perform assigned duties. To the extent possible, ease of use and technician comfort should be considered when selecting personnel protective equipment.

15-8 UNIFORMS AND PROTECTIVE CLOTHING AND EQUIPMENT

- a. The employer will furnish to each bargaining unit employee, except an employee who is a military officer, uniforms (including headgear, belts, and footwear) which the employer requires the employee to wear on duty.
- b. If clothing becomes contaminated to the extent that it requires removal to prevent injury or physical harm to the employee, the employer will replace or have cleaned the affected clothing. The employer will inform employees that such contaminated clothing should never be removed from the work site.

15-9 HAZARDOUS MATERIAL TRAINING

- a. Hazardous material information and training will be made available IAW current DOD directives and AFOSH standards.
- b. The agency agrees to make a reasonable effort to provide all personnel with the training required by the directives and standards detailing the hazards associated with chemicals used in their respective shops. Employees who handle, use, or are potentially exposed to hazardous materials in the course of official duties, will receive on-the-job training on the specific hazards in their work areas. This training will be conducted upon initial work area assignment and whenever a new hazard is identified or introduced into a work area. Initial training will be provided in accordance with OSHA and AFOSH regulations.
- c. All training will be documented.
- d. Manufacturer Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) will be available to all supervisors, all employees exposed to any chemical hazard, and/or the individuals requesting such information in an official capacity. The MSDS will be on file in a known location and accessible to all the above individuals.

15-10 SAFETY SURVEY

A TA representative shall be given official time to be present during a safety survey, if officially requested by a member of the bargaining unit, due to a potential impact on working conditions for employees. The representative will contact the individual responsible for the safety survey prior to its initiation and inform them of their intent to observe the survey.

15-11 HAZARD REPORTING

- a. A hazard may be reported by any person and may be submitted on any event or condition that affects safety.
- b. Reportable hazards include, but are not limited to, unsafe procedures, practices, or conditions in the following areas:
 - (1) Ground operation and maintenance of aircraft.
 - (2) Ground operation and maintenance of vehicles.
 - (3) Operation and maintenance of facilities.
 - (4) Training and education programs.
 - (5) Work environment.
- c. Hazards should be reported to the responsible supervisors so action can be taken. Oral reports for imminent danger situations are mandatory. In such situations the Wing Safety Office will be immediately notified. If the hazard is eliminated on the spot, no further action is required. If the hazard is not or cannot be corrected within the work center, an AF Form 457 Hazard Report, will be prepared and given to the section supervisor. Supervisors will notify the organization safety NCO, who will coordinate with the Wing Safety Office. Hazard Reports may be submitted anonymously directly to the Wing Safety Office.

- d. The Safety Office will review and evaluate the report IAW appropriate directives/regulations.
- e. If after review and processing of the report by the Wing Safety Office, the originator is not satisfied, the technician may appeal IAW AFI 91-202, The US Air Force Mishap Prevention Program, or file a grievance, but not concurrently.
NOTE: Applicable Safety Regulations are on file in the Wing Safety Office and are available to all employees.
- f. The term “imminent danger” means any conditions or practices in any work place that could reasonably be expected to cause death or serious physical injury.
 - (1) In the case of imminent danger situations, employees shall make reports by the most expeditious means available.
 - (2) The technician has the right to decline to perform assigned tasks because of a reasonable belief that, under the circumstances, the tasks pose an imminent risk of death or serious physical injury, coupled with a reasonable belief that there is insufficient time to effectively seek corrective action through hazard reporting and abatement procedures. In these instances, the employee must report the situation to their supervisor or the next immediately available higher level supervisor.
 - (3) If the supervisor believes the condition or corrected condition still poses an immediate danger, the supervisor shall request an inspection by the Wing Safety Office.
 - (4) Every attempt will be made to correct the condition to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned. The supervisor will work closely with the employee and the Wing Safety Office to ensure that imminent danger threats are eliminated. The Wing Safety Office will be the final authority regarding employee safety concerns and will ensure potentially unsafe working conditions are corrected before work resumes.

15-12 HIGH RISK OPERATIONS

If a member has a reasonable belief that they are in imminent risk of death or serious bodily harm from a work assignment, and do not have sufficient time to remove the hazard through normal hazard reporting procedures, they may decline to perform the assignment. They must report the safety issue to the supervisor and directly to the safety office. The supervisor and the safety office will evaluate the report in an effort to determine the described hazard and to help achieve a solution. Members have additional rights established by law. Employees who decline to perform any assignment due to the previously mentioned reasons shall not be subject to any form of reprisal or discipline.

15-13 PHYSICAL FITNESS

Technicians are authorized, at the discretion of the Agency, three (3) hours of official time per week to participate in the physical fitness program in accordance with the established policy of the agency.

ARTICLE 16

LEAVE

16-1 GENERAL

The provisions of this article and WY TPR 630 establish the basic leave policies for employees of the Wyoming Air National Guard to ensure equal treatment of all employees covered by this agreement; both are available via electronic media.

16-2 ANNUAL LEAVE

- a. Purpose: Annual leave is provided for two general purposes: to allow for rest and relaxation, and to provide time off for personal and emergency purposes.
- b. Use: Annual leave is a benefit provided by law and accrues automatically. However, supervisors are responsible to approve and monitor leave usage. The decision to approve/disapprove leave will take into consideration mission requirements of the Wyoming Military Department and the desires of the technician. Supervisors will encourage technicians to schedule annual leave so as to prevent unintended loss of leave at the end of the leave year. Supervisors have the option of requiring employees to request leave using the OPM Form 71 (Application for leave).
- c. Maximum accumulation: Normally, technicians may accumulate and carry forward into the next year a maximum of 240 hours of annual leave. Under certain circumstances the 240 hour limit may be exceeded. These circumstances are outlined in the NGB TPR 630. If situations meeting the outlined circumstances occur, a letter explaining the situation and requesting restoration of forfeited leave will be sent through supervisory channels to the HRO for approval.

16-3 SICK LEAVE

- a. Purpose: Sick leave is for use when a technician is physically incapacitated to do their job, or for related reasons such as:
 - (1) Exposure to contagious diseases that would endanger the health of coworkers.
 - (2) Presence of a contagious disease in the technician's immediate family which requires their personal care.
 - (3) Dental, optical, or medical examination or treatment.
 - (4) Purposes relating to the adoption of a child. This includes appointments with adoption agencies, social workers, and attorneys; court proceedings; required travel; and other activities required to allow the adoption to proceed.
 - (5) Family Friendly Leave Act provisions.
- b. Use: Sick leave will be authorized only in bona fide cases and may be granted orally or in writing. The immediate supervisor is responsible for verifying that absences are properly charged to sick leave.
- c. Medical Certificates: Medical certificates are required to support requests for advance sick leave. They may also be required under the following conditions at the discretion of the supervisor:

- (1) For absence in excess of three (3) workdays.
- (2) For absences of short periods at frequent intervals whenever there is reason to believe that the sick leave privilege is being abused. Whenever there is reason for the Employer to believe that a technician may be abusing sick leave, the technician will be advised through counseling that there is concern and that sick leave controls may be imposed. When sick leave controls are imposed the technician will be informed in writing. When controls are imposed the technician will be informed as to the duration for the controls and in normal circumstances controls should not exceed one (1) year.

16-4 COMPENSATORY TIME

- a. Whenever possible, employee requests to work beyond the normal duty day should be obtained in advance from their supervisor and properly documented on applicable form. The approving official is the second level supervisor. To the maximum extent possible, work schedules and planning will be used to avoid the need for working beyond the normal duty day.
- b. Supervisors may request employees work beyond the normal duty day based on unforeseen circumstances for mission accomplishment. This will not be done when the tasks do not have immediate mission impact. The approving official is the second level supervisor. To the maximum extent possible, work schedules and planning will be used to avoid the need for working beyond the normal duty day.
- c. Compensatory time must be taken within 26 pay periods from the pay period in which it was earned. Compensatory time not used within 26 pay periods will be forfeited.
- d. It is a supervisor and technician responsibility to ensure comp time is scheduled for use to avoid forfeiture. Compensatory time will be taken before annual leave except where annual leave would be lost.
- e. Compensatory time is granted and taken in hourly increments.
- f. When the employee is required to return to work outside of normal duty hours a minimum of two (2) hours of compensatory time will be granted.
- g. Non-duty days during TDY will not be considered work days. Compensatory time will not be granted solely for the purpose of compensating employees for being away from their duty station. Compensatory time is only authorized for non-duty days during a TDY when actual work is directed and performed.

16-5 FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE (FMLA)

- a. Purpose: This leave provides up to 12 (twelve) weeks of unpaid leave during any 12- month period for one or more of the following reasons:
 - (1) The birth of a child and post-natal care.
 - (2) The placement of a child with an employee for adoption or foster care.
 - (3) The care of a spouse, son, daughter, or parent of an employee for a serious health condition.
 - (4) Serious health condition of an employee that makes the employee unable to perform essential functions of his/her position.
- b. The employee may substitute paid leave (annual leave, sick leave, or compensatory time) for this unpaid leave, but must notify their supervisor prior to using paid leave for these purposes.

16-6 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY (LWOP)

LWOP is a temporary non-pay status and absence from duty granted upon an employee's request. The authorization of leave without pay is a matter of administrative discretion. Technicians cannot demand to be granted leave without pay. The agency agrees to consider leave without pay upon request of the employee for situations such as job related training/education which would be of benefit to the agency. Leave without pay requested by a technician must be approved or disapproved in advance by the Adjutant General or designated representative (HRO).

16-7 LEAVE FOR BLOOD DONATION

The agency and the TA recognize the importance and humanitarian need for community blood donors. When community need for blood donors arises and work requirements allow for agency donors to be released, the technician(s) will be in an excused absence status. Depending on the community needs and consistent with safe medical practices, excused absences will be a minimum of two (2) hours for donation and recovery and may be allowed up to four (4) hours.

16-8 MILITARY LEAVE

- a. Military Leave (ML) with respect to 5 U.S.C. 6323 (a) is for use when a technician performs annual training, active duty for special work/full time training duty, inactive duty training, or active duty training. A member of the National Guard who is a Federal employee is entitled to leave of absence from his/her duties, without loss of pay grade, leave time or efficiency rating. Each technician will be credited with one hundred twenty (120) hours of ML, 6323 (a), at the beginning of each fiscal year. The maximum allowable balance of ML is two hundred forty (240) hours. One hundred twenty (120) hours of ML may be carried over from one fiscal year to the next. ML is charged in hourly increments.
- b. While an employee is on ML 6323(a) the employee collects their civilian and military pay. For further information, see Department of Defense Instruction Number 1215.19, March 14, 1997; Uniform Reserve, Training and Retirement Category Administration; Enclosure 4, Definitions; E4.1.15.
- c. 5 U.S.C. 6323(d) provides forty four (44) days (workdays) per calendar year for active duty to be performed outside of the United States, its territories or possessions. The employee still receives their military entitlements: military retirement points, per diem and military Hazardous Duty pay. The employee still receives their civilian pay.
- d. In very limited emergency cases technicians may perform technician and active duty on the same calendar day. When this occurs, the technician will not be charged leave for hours worked in technician duty status. Additionally, the hours of the work shift in active duty status will be charged to military leave (6323(a)), annual leave, compensatory time, or leave without pay. HRO will be notified immediately when this possibility arises. EXAMPLE: Technician begins technician duty day. The unit receives an emergency call requiring personnel in an active duty status for mission accomplishment. No other individuals are available to participate in the mission. The technician is placed on active duty orders. This active duty mission begins at 1100. The technician may use military leave, annual leave, compensatory leave, or leave without pay from 1100 to the end of the technician duty day. No leave would be charged from beginning of duty day until 1100. ML, if available, may be used for the remainder of the active duty period.

- e. Minimum charge for military leave 6323(a) is one (1) hour.
- f. Exchange for forty four (44) military leave 6323(d) will be workday for workday.
- g. ML 6323(a) is only charged for the hours that the employee would otherwise have worked and received pay.
- h. ML 6323(a) and 6323(d) are not charged on non-workdays or holidays.
- i. ML 6323(a) when used in U.S. may be co-mingled with annual leave, compensatory time, time off award, and LWOP.
- j. ML 6323(a) and 6323(d) when used OCONUS, may be co-mingled with each other, annual leave, compensatory time, time off award, and LWOP.

ARTICLE 18

NON-DISCIPLINARY, DISCIPLINARY, AND ADVERSE ACTIONS

18-1 GENERAL

- a. This article applies to matters of CONDUCT only; actions that relate to JOB PERFORMANCE will be accomplished in accordance with the agency performance appraisal system and contract modifications (Article 13). It is acknowledged that in some cases, corrective actions are necessary to ensure good order and discipline. The parties agree that discipline and adverse actions will be based on just cause and be consistently applied to promote the efficiency of the federal service. The progressive discipline concept shall be considered when determining a course of action against an employee. When situations arise that may benefit from mediation, it will be considered as an option to resolve the issue.
- b. Before taking disciplinary or adverse action against an employee, the supervisor considering the action will gather all available facts and discuss them with the employee, will inform the employee of the reason for the investigation, and will consider the employees response.
- c. The employee may have a TA representative if so desired for any corrective, disciplinary or adverse action.

18-2 NON-DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

- a. Non –disciplinary actions consist of counseling or oral admonishment with the employee by his supervisor. When appropriate, non-disciplinary action as described in this article should be the first step in taking corrective action against an employee. The employee will be advised in a timely manner of the specific infraction or breach of conduct and exactly when it occurred.
- b. Counseling should be recorded on HRO Form 904-1, the automated supervisor's brief, or MFR and referenced on the 904-1. Entries to the 904-1 must be done in pencil, and may remain in the employees file for up to 6 months, longer for continuing or recurring problems.
- c. An oral admonishment is the most severe form of corrective, non-disciplinary action and notifies an employee to desist from a certain course of action. The supervisor will describe the offense in sufficient detail to enable the employee to understand why the admonishment is necessary. An oral admonishment should be recorded in pencil on the HRO Form 904-1, the automated supervisor's brief, or via MFR and referenced on the 904-1 Entries to the 904-1 must be done in pencil, and may remain in the employees file for up to 6 months, longer for continuing or recurring problems.

18-3 DISCIPLINARY/ADVERSE ACTION

NGB TPR 752 defines the process for administering disciplinary and adverse actions and will be used when documented informal counseling is not sufficient to correct an employee's conduct or behavior. Supervisors will consult with HRO/Labor Relations Specialist before taking disciplinary or adverse action against an employee. The parties recognize that there are two types of actions that may be appropriate; i.e., disciplinary action and adverse action. Disciplinary action will be for the sole purpose of correcting offending employees and problem situations and maintaining discipline and morale among other employees. A supervisor should consider a closer degree of individual supervision and/or warnings to effect corrective action prior to undertaking an action.

18-4 DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- a. Disciplinary action consists of written reprimands. In order to be effective, constructive discipline must be timely. Disciplinary action should be initiated within 10 workdays after the offense becomes known or should have become known to the individual's supervisor. Appropriate justification will be provided when this requirement cannot be adhered to.
- b. Any letter of reprimand (LOR) issued may remain in an employee's file between one and three years. Nothing prevents the supervisor from removing an LOR earlier than the expiration date after conferring with HRO/LRS.
- c. Written reprimand will:
 - (1) Normally be signed by the appropriate supervisor and coordinated with HRO for contract and regulatory compliance.
 - (2) Describe the offense in sufficient detail, to include the specific instruction, regulation, or policy paragraph, subparagraph, if applicable to enable the employee to understand why the reprimand is necessary
 - (3) Inform the employee that the letter will be filed as a temporary document in the Official Personnel Folder (OPF) until a specific date for removal. Retention period may not exceed three years. An appeal of a letter of reprimand may be made through the negotiated grievance procedure. A successful appeal could cause the action to be withdrawn and any record of the action to be deleted.

18-5 ADVERSE ACTIONS

- a. Although these actions constitute discipline, only suspension, reductions in grade and removal actions, as described below, are considered adverse actions since they affect the pay of the employee.
- b. Adverse Action is an action that results in suspension without pay, change to lower grade, or removal of any employee.
 - (1) There must be a reason for taking adverse action; that reason is commonly referred to as a "cause" and is defined as "an offense against the employer/employee relationship. What constitutes a "cause" is a decision that must be made on the merits of each situation.
 - (2) Having a "cause" is not sufficient to warrant an adverse action. Management must also conclude that taking an adverse action will promote the efficiency of the service. This is done by establishing a relationship between the "cause" and its impact or effect upon the efficiency of the service (i.e., the employee's ability to perform his duties; the agency's ability to fulfill its mission, etc.)
- c. Adverse actions are initiated by a proposed letter of adverse action. The initiator of the proposed action letter is someone in the technicians' supervisory chain. HRO approval for procedural correctness must be obtained before issuing proposed adverse action and original decisions. The following, as required by agency regulation NGB TPR 752 will be the sequence of events for an adverse action:

- (1) After a proposed adverse action is issued, the employee and/or the representative will be given the opportunity to reply to the charges, in writing and/or in person, to the deciding official.
 - (A) The Employee will be given twenty (20) calendar days to reply to the proposed action. A maximum of two time extensions may be provided upon written justification, additional extensions will be considered only in extenuating circumstances.
 - (B) If requested by the employee through their HRO contact, all evidence and materials relied upon to support the action will be provided to the employee and their TA representative.
 - (C) A sufficient amount of excused absence will be provided to the employee and their TA representative to; (1) review all evidence and materials and (2) prepare the reply to the proposed action. A minimum of four hours will be granted; extensions will be considered when the circumstances require.
- (2) As soon as practical, and after expiration of the reply period, the employee will be given a Notice of Original Decision, signed by the deciding Official that will state the specific action being taken. Upon receipt of the decision the employee has twenty (20) calendar days to file for one of the three options 1) an appellate review by the Adjutant General, 2) an Administrative Hearing conducted by a National Guard hearing examiner or 3) an advisory non-binding arbitration hearing conducted by an FMCS arbitrator.
 - (A) Employees requesting an appeal or review shall submit their letter of intent to the HRO office within the timeframe established in the original decision. The appeal letter will also include whether or not the individual is represented by a third party.
 - (B) If the employee requests an administrative hearing, the HRO, will submit a written request to NGB for a list of examiners. Upon receipt of the NGB hearing examiner list, the HRO will contact the hearing examiners to determine availability, and request support from the states' TAG and provide the contact information to the employee. The hearing will be before the selected hearing examiner who will provide a recommendation to The Adjutant General. The Adjutant General will consider the recommendation in making the final decision. The hearing examiners per diem and travel expenses will be paid by the employer.
 - (C) If non-binding arbitration is requested by the TA on behalf of the employee, the cost of arbitration will be split 50% TA and 50% Agency. The Adjutant General will consider the non-binding arbitration recommendation in making the final decision.

18-6 REPRESENTATION

- a. Prior to discussions that may reasonably lead to adverse actions, the supervisor or person/persons performing an investigation role for the agency will notify the employee of the right to TA representation. If the employee accepts representation, no further questioning will take place until the representative is present. If the employee chooses not to have representation that a waiver (TAG WY Form 132-E) must be in writing, and the TA will receive a copy of this waiver.

- b. An investigatory interview will, if representation is requested, be delayed for a reasonable amount of time until the employee(s) representative can be present.

18-7 RECORDS

- a. In any disciplinary or adverse action, an employee will, upon written request, be furnished a copy of all written documents in the employer's files, which contain evidence used by the employer to support any disciplinary or adverse action. Any such records, or journals shall not be used as a basis to support any disciplinary or adverse action against an employee unless the employee has been shown and provided a copy of such record, note or journal within a reasonable period of time after the date of the incident being recorded, or as part of the disciplinary or adverse action process.
- b. No written entry will be made in an employee's files concerning disciplinary matters without the knowledge of the employee. The employee will initial the entry. The employee's initials acknowledge ONLY that the employee KNOWS that an entry was made, but in no circumstance may initialing the entry be considered as an agreement with the entry or an admission of guilt.

- b. Procedures relating to reduction in force will be governed by Public Law 95-454 and this article. The detailed procedure to effectuate this article will be accomplished in accordance with Article 20 (APPROPRIATE BARGAINING) of this Labor Management Agreement. Further it is agreed between the parties that procedures used by management officials in exercising their authority are negotiable and to that extent the Adjutant General in recognizing the responsibility of the TA to represent the bargaining unit, agrees to negotiate appropriate arrangements for the bargaining unit adversely affected by implementation of this article.

21-2 DEFINITIONS

- a. Reduction in Force (RIF): Occurs when a technician is released from his/her competitive level by separation, change to lower grade, furlough for more than thirty (30) calendar days, transfer of function, or reassignment involving displacement of another technician due to lack of work or funds, reorganization, or the need to make room for a technician exercising restoration rights.
- b. Competitive Areas: The areas within which technicians compete during a reduction in force (RIF) and are described geographically, organizationally, or a combination of both. At the time a RIF notification is received, impact bargaining will take place to determine the portion of the bargaining unit affected.
- c. Competitive Levels: A competitive level consists of all positions within a competitive area, which are in the same service (Excepted or Competitive) and in the same grade and are so alike in qualification requirements, duties, and responsibilities that the incumbents can be moved from one position to another without undue interruption to the work program. Supervisors/managers will not be placed in the same competitive levels as bargaining unit technicians. Non-bargaining unit technicians will not compete with bargaining unit technicians for bargaining unit positions.
- d. Tenure Groups:
 - (1) Group I - Technicians under career/permanent appointment who are not serving on probationary or trial periods.
 - (2) Group II - Technicians serving on probationary or trial periods.
 - (3) Group III - Technicians who have been given indefinite appointments in the excepted service.
- e. Retention Registers: A record which lists competing technicians, in descending order, within their competitive levels, as defined in Section 21-5.
- f. Voluntary RIFs: Voluntary RIFs shall be solicited among the bargaining unit within the competitive area to reduce the overall impact.

21-3 HRO RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. Meet with the TA to explain the need for a reduction in force, and provide all documents and correspondence relative to the RIF action.
- b. After impact and implementation bargaining with the TA, notification of the RIF to the workforce will be in the form of a posted written general notice as far in advance as possible. In any case however, the notice will not be less than (sixty) 60 days. The general notice will contain as a minimum:
 - (1) The established competitive area.
 - (2) The date personnel actions are frozen, i.e., reassignments, promotions, Hiring's, Ratings of Records, etc.
 - (3) POC for counseling.
 - (4) Established date and times for appropriate briefings.
 - (5) Expiration Date.
- c. The parties agree to develop an aggressive placement program to include contact with other states, local federal activities, local government and private Employers.

- d. A separate written specific notice will be given to each affected technician to be RIF'd at least 60 days prior to the effective date of the action. This notice will state specific actions and known alternatives to be offered to the individual. Specific notices may run concurrent with a general notice.

21-4 EMPLOYEE'S RIGHTS

- a. Bargaining unit technicians will be entitled to representation by the TA.
- b. Acceptance of a temporary appointment with Wyoming Air National Guard (WYANG) will not affect a technician's right to be offered permanent employment.
- c. When WY ANG decides to fill a vacant position within their respective service from which a technician has been demoted or RIF'd, the former technician will be entitled to their former position, provided the individual meets all appointment requirements in accordance with applicable federal regulations.
- d. In a situation where a technician is offered, and elects to take, a demotion in lieu of a separation, he/she will be entitled to grade/pay retention in accordance with applicable laws and regulation if his/her change to a lower grade has a positive effect on another technician.
- e. A technician affected by a reduction in force will receive a copy of a reduction in force notice. The TA will also receive a copy.
- f. Management may offer reassignment, retraining, and other actions that may be taken to retain career employees.

(2) Service Comp Date (second tie breaker)
(3) Rating of Record (last three on file)
- b. Recognizing the necessity to establish separate competitive areas for bargaining unit positions and non-bargaining unit positions, the Employer will create separate retention registers within each category. Technicians will compete within their respective categories and will have no impact on each other.

21-6 PLACEMENT ACTION

- a. The Employer will take positive action to assist employees affected by RIF or transfer of function to be placed within the Wyoming National Guard.
- b. Placement assistance will also include contacts with other states, local federal activities, local government and private employers.
- c. Reemployment Priority List. A reemployment priority list must be maintained for tenure groups I and II employees separated in a RIF. Upon receipt of a specific notice of separation, employees will be placed on this list, but only if they have not declined an offer that preserves a non-temporary, full-time position in their present grade, step, or equivalent salary. Employees will remain on this list for two (2) years, unless they decline in writing, accept a full-time position, or decline the offer of a full-time position in the Federal Government.

21-7 APPEALS

- a. A competing employee may appeal to the Adjutant General when he/she has received a specific notice of reduction in force, and he/she has received a specific notice of reduction in force, and he/she believes that the Employer incorrectly applied the provisions of this contract Article, or applicable Regulation or Law.
 - (1) An appeal may be submitted upon receipt of a specific notice, but no later than thirty (30) calendar days before the effective date of the action.
 - (2) The appeal must be in writing and must include the following information: Name, SSAN, position title, series and grade, position description control number (PDCN), and the place of employment.
 - (3) The appeal must clearly state the reason the employee believes the action affecting him/her is inappropriate, and must show that the Employer failed to comply with the RIF procedures outlined in this Article (e.g., insufficient notice, improper tenure grouping, and errors in service computation date).
- b. Extension of Time Limit. The Adjutant General may extend the appeal time limit when the employee indicates that he/she was not notified of a time limit and otherwise was not aware of it, or that circumstances beyond his/her control prevented him/her from appealing within the time limit.
- c. Decision on Appeal. The Adjutant General will issue a written decision and, where applicable, direct the HRO to take any necessary corrective action. A copy of the decision stating what corrective action will be taken is then forwarded to the employee. The decision of the Adjutant General is final and there is no further right or appeal. A copy of the decision issued by the Adjutant General will be furnished to all interested parties.
- d. Corrective Action. The decision of the Adjutant General may require the HRO to take corrective action as follows:
 - (1) Correct the retention register.
 - (2) Correct the employee's specific notice.
 - (3) Restore the employee to his/her former grade/pay level or one of like seniority, status, and pay when the employee was reduced or separated improperly.
 - (4) Reimburse the employee for all pay lost as a result of any improper RIF action.
- e. When an employee's appeal uncovers an error that does not change the outcome of the RIF, the Adjutant General will correct the error without requiring restoration or recall of the employee or employees involved.

ARTICLE 22

POSITION MANAGEMENT PLAN

22-1 GENERAL

Positions are established by the NGB based upon established or projected organization needs or upon special request from the various states. Positions are reviewed periodically to determine if there is a valid need for that position, to insure that duties and responsibilities are accurately described, and to ensure that the position is properly classified. These reviews may be done locally or by NGB. If a review results in a position being rewritten or reevaluated, the grade may stay the same or an upgrade or a downgrade may occur. Additional information contained in regulatory guidelines and this article will be used to ensure equal treatment of all employees covered by this agreement; both are available via electronic media. For most position management concerns, refer to the merit placement plan.

22-2 RECLASSIFICATION DOWNGRADE

Downgrades resulting from reclassification are not adverse actions but are considered classification actions. The supervisor of the affected position will be contacted to arrange a meeting between the HRO, supervisor, and affected employee(s) to discuss the implications and or options available. The TA will be contacted and will be invited to attend this meeting; however classification actions are not grievable. Affected employee(s) will be given as much notice as possible, keeping in mind that the effective date to implement a new position description may be dictated by a higher authority.

Technicians may appeal the grade, title, series, and/or pay plan of the position they officially occupy. Duties and responsibilities of the position cannot be appealed. There must be agreement between the technician and supervisor that the position description is accurate. Appeals must be filed in writing. The HRO determines whether the submission meets the requirements of a classification appeal, furnishes guidance on format and documentation, and assures there is mutual agreement between the technician and supervisor regarding the statement of duties and responsibilities recorded in the official position description.

Supervisors (with assistance from the HRO) will inform technicians of their right to appeal the classification of their positions, resolve questions as to adequacy and accuracy of the duties and responsibilities as stated in the technician's official position description, process the appeal promptly, and inform the HRO of any significant changes in the duties and responsibilities in the position under appeal.

22-3 GRADE RETENTION

A technician who is downgraded as a result of reclassification is eligible for grade retention for a period of two (2) years, if the position has been a higher grade continuously for at least one year. During this period, if a vacancy of equal or intervening grade occurs for which the technician is qualified, the technician will have priority consideration and be offered the position prior to advertising the vacancy. If there is more than one qualified eligible technician in grade retention, the position will be offered to the technician that has been placed in grade retention the longest.

ARTICLE 23

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM

23-1 POLICY

The Wyoming Air National Guard fully supports the requirements of national EEO policy and federal EEO law. The agency assures equal opportunities for employment, development, promotion and treatment of the Air National Guard technicians. The Agency and the TA agree to cooperate to the fullest in providing equal employment opportunity for all qualified applicants and technicians and to prohibit discrimination based on age, race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), national origin, retaliation, or non-disqualifying disability. Both parties agree to promote and support all programs for equal employment opportunity through a positive and continuing effort.

23-2 EEO COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

Any technician who believes they have been discriminated against in any matter because of race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), age, national origin, retaliation, or non-disqualifying disability) may file an EEO complaint through the statutory procedures by contacting a designated EEO counselor or EEO official for that specific area within 45 calendar days of the occurrence.

23-3 COMPLAINTS ALLEGING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- a. The Agency and the TA agree that sexual harassment in the workplace will not be condoned.
- b. Reported cases of sexual harassment will receive prompt and THOROUGH ATTENTION.
- c. Any technician who feels they have been the victim of sexual harassment may file a complaint through the statutory procedure by contacting an EEO counselor or EEO official within forty-five (45) days of the occurrence.
- d. The Agency and TA agree to work together to support programs that promote a work place culture that encourages mutual respect and discourages behaviors that demean the individual.

WEINGARTEN RIGHTS NOTIFICATION

Section 7114 (a)(2)(B) of the Civil Reform Act (P/L/95-454) establishes for bargaining unit technicians who are examined by an agency representative in connection with an investigation. In this situation, if the technician reasonably believes that he or she may be subjected to discipline, and if he or she requests union representation, the agency may proceed with examination (if it chooses to do so) only after the exclusive union has been afforded the opportunity to be present.

You should be aware of the following considerations relative to the representation right, which were effective January 11, 1979:

1. The Exclusive union has a right to be present during an examination of a technician conducted by and agency representative in connection with an investigation only when (a) the technician reasonably believes the investigation may result in disciplinary action and (b) the technician requests representation.
2. The law requires that the agencies notify bargaining unit personnel annually of their right to representation during investigatory examinations. Supervisors and other agency representatives are not required to notify technicians of this right on an individual basis before proceeding with an examination.
3. The purpose of the examination is basically to obtain information from the technician. When a union representative is present the technician should be permitted to consult the representative; however, the union representative is not entitled to answer on behalf of the technician or to bargain with management regarding the results of the investigation.
4. This right applies only where a technician is being questions or examined in connection with an investigation; it does not apply to everyday work-related communications between supervisors and technicians, nor to discussions concerning job performance.
5. The right of representative established by P.L. 95-454 applies to technicians in bargaining units, and permits representation only by the union holding exclusive recognition.
