- l. When employees work trade time, they will work at the station that the position they are covering was assigned, (if the schedule has already been published) unless it leaves the inside station without an officer.

Section 3: Requests for Lateral Transfers between Tours of Duty

Such request shall be signed by both employees and submitted to each employee's respective immediate supervisor to be forwarded via the chain-of-command to the Fire Chief with a recommendation for approval or disapproval.
- c. Normally, all employees will be given 14 (fourteen) calendar days notice before being transferred to another tour of duty, unless mission requirements or cost consideration require otherwise.

- a. Personnel are not authorized to report for duty in an official capacity unless requested. Request shall be made at the discretion of the Fire Chief, Assistant Chief, Captain, Duty Officer, or designee.
- b. The Employer will take whatever steps necessary to meet emergency requirements. However, the Employer will make an effort to use voluntary overtime rather than mandatory overtime when possible.
- c. Personnel on sick leave for an entire shift shall not work overtime until 24 (twenty-four) hours after the end of the shift in which sick leave was used except as dictated by mission requirements.
- d. Employees will be advised of which station to report to when working overtime.
- e. One list will be kept for voluntary and mandatory overtime. Except for the Fire Inspector, all bargaining unit employees will appear on the overtime list.

Section 3: Employee Contact Number for Overtime and Emergency Call-Back

Employees will provide management with one phone number that will be the official overtime and emergency call-back contact number used. This number maybe a cell phone, home phone, etc., but only one number. If this number changes, it will be the responsibility of the employee to notify management of the change.

Section 4: Procedures for Assigning Overtime

- a. The Assistant Chief, Captain, Duty Officer, (or designee) shall start with the person at the top of the overtime list. A telephone call will be made to determine if anyone is interested in voluntary overtime. The person on the top of the overtime list will be informed at the time of the call that if no one accepts the voluntary overtime they will be notified within one hour (1) that they must report for mandatory overtime. Personnel will receive compensation for the time spent in this stand-by status in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. If a message is left on an answering machine, five (5) minutes will be allotted for the employee to return the call.

- b. Overtime hours will normally be filled in a priority order as follows:
 - 1. Entire Overtime Period
 - 2. Twelve Hour Period
 - 3. Eight Hour Periods
 - 4. Any Combination of Hours (to prevent mandatory overtime) not to exceed three (3) personnel
- c. If overtime is identified 4 (four) days or less before its occurrence, it shall be filled immediately using the procedures outlined in this Article.
- d. - d. Annual leave will be granted in 15 (fifteen) minute increments.

- b. A Raven Rock Fire & Emergency Services (RRF & ES) vacation request schedule will be used to help eliminate leave requests for dates that are already taken.
- c. Beginning 1 (one) December, the vacation request schedule will begin with the employee with the most seniority and will be passed to the next senior individual until each employee has had an opportunity to request 1 (one) vacation period of leave.

- d. To request vacation leave, each employee will place his or her initials beside the consecutive dates requested for 1 (one) vacation period and return the RRF & ES leave request schedule to the supervisor. Simultaneously, the employee will submit a completed Standard Form-71 to his supervisor. A copy of the approved or disapproved Standard Form-71 will be given to the employee.
- e. During each rotation, employees will be given one (1) regularly scheduled 24 (twenty-four) hour shift to schedule their vacation period. This procedure will rotate until each employee has had an opportunity to schedule 4 (four) vacation periods. Only one vacation period will be scheduled per individual per rotation.
- f. If an individual is on a regular break or short-term, 24 (twenty-four) hours or less, emergency leave, the list will be held for them. Employees on extended leave, more than 24 (twenty-four) hours, will be notified via telephone and will have 24 (twenty-four) hours to schedule their vacation period for that rotation or forfeit that rotation. In the interest of time, personnel may leave a sealed proxy list of requested vacation times with a supervisor who may act on their behalf.
- g. The approved, scheduled vacation periods will be posted on the RRF & ES work schedules by 1 (one) February. Vacation leave will be marked on the work schedule in RED.
- h. Employees may cancel scheduled vacation periods at any time. In doing so, the employee will lose the right to reschedule an additional vacation period except on a first-come, first serve basis. Any employee who was previously refused the vacation period (due to seniority or lack of manpower) will have the first option to re-submit for any or all of this vacation period using regular leave.
- i. Fire Inspectors shall choose up to 4 (four) periods of vacation leave per calendar year.

Section 3: Procedures for Scheduling Annual Leave (Non-vacation periods)

Starting March 1 (one) at 0730 hours, annual leave will be scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- b. If multiple requests are received simultaneously (a conflict), the most senior employee will have a choice to either use his or her seniority for the day in conflict or not. Once seniority is used, the employee will not be allowed to use seniority for the remainder of that bi-weekly schedule if a conflict arises again, between the same people. Again, the conflict must be between the same individuals for this to effect the granting of leave. Employees using their seniority to resolve a conflict will be marked in BLUE on the work schedule.

- c. Annual leave requests for short periods of time that are submitted in advance will ordinarily be approved or disapproved within 1 (one) day of submission.
- d. Approval/disapproval of requests will be based upon the needs of the activity in addition to the employee's request and other pertinent considerations. When employees can be spared from their duties without adverse impact on the organizational needs of the Employer, annual leave may be approved.

When an emergency (sudden or unforeseen situation that requires immediate action) necessitates an employee's absence, which cannot be approved in advance, the employee shall notify the on-duty supervisor, as soon as practical, but no later than 2 (two) hours prior to the start of their scheduled work shift. Employees will describe the emergency, given estimate as to how long they will be absent, and the type of leave desired. If the absence extends beyond 1 (one) workday, the employee shall call in daily, except for predetermined periods of leave that have already been approved, to keep the on-duty supervisor informed of the situation and probable date of return to work. Employees may be required to substantiate the nature of the emergency. Section 5: Procedures for Requesting Sick Leave for Medical Emergencies or Unexpected Illness

- a. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure the supervisor (or designee) is notified when an incapacitating illness or injury prevents the employee from reporting for work. An employee who is incapacitated for duty will notify the supervisor or other designated responsible person at the duty station as soon as possible, but not later than 2 (two) hours before the beginning of the employee's shift, and request leave, so arrangements may be made to maintain appropriate staffing at the start of the tour of duty. The employee shall notify the supervisor as to the expected duration of absence and shall request appropriate leave.

abusing sick leave, when the use of sick leave exceeds 2 (two) full duty days in any 7 (seven) day period, or when the employee uses an excessive amount of one or two day periods of sick leave.

- c. Such medical certificates will specify the fitness of the employee to resume his duties or any restrictions imposed thereto.

- a. At the Employer's discretion, if an employee is suspected of abusing sick leave, the employee may be issued a sick leave restriction mandating a medical certificate for each absence for which sick leave, or other leave in lieu of sick leave, is requested.
- b. If a letter of requirement (sick leave restriction) is issued, the following provisions will apply:
 - 1. After 6 (six) months from the issuance of the letter of requirement, the employee may request that his/her attendance be re-evaluated. If there is no evidence of abuse and/or there is improvement in the use of sick leave, the requirement to provide medical documentation for every use of sick leave may be removed.
 - 2. If the sick leave abuse persists, the requirement to provide medical documentation for every use of sick leave will continue.

Section 2: Tardy Arrivals

- a. In an isolated instance of tardiness of less than 1 (one) hour where the excuse is acceptable to the Employer, the tardiness may be excused in accordance with applicable regulations. Where the tardiness is in excess of 1 (one) hour and the reason for the tardiness is acceptable to the Employer, the employee may be granted leave, if available, or leave without pay (LWOP).

In all cases where a CA-1 or CA-2 is completed by the employee, the Employer will complete the official supervisor's report to insure that any known witnesses to the accident provide signed statements. The Employer will insure that any injury reports are provided promptly to the Personnel Office.
