URGENT — Reply Required Within 30 Days to Avoid Interruption of Your Payments

For your protection, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is verifying your records to make sure the annuity payments and informational correspondence we send you are going to the right person and the correct address. If we are paying you as the survivor of a deceased Federal employee or retiree, it is your information we are verifying. The information for the deceased is already on file.

Please take the following actions promptly:

- Verify the name and address shown above for accuracy (including spelling).
- Enter the information requested in Parts A or B on page 2 of this letter.
- Sign your name in the space provided.
- Return this letter to the Office of Personnel Management in the enclosed envelope.

Thank you for your cooperation in this important matter.

Privacy Act and Public Burden Statements

Solicitation of this information is authorized by the Civil Service Retirement law, Federal Employees Retirement law, the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program, and the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (Chapters 83, 84, 87, and 89 of title 5, U.S. Code). The information you furnish will be used to identify records properly associated with your application for Federal benefits, to obtain additional information if necessary, to determine and allow present or future benefits, and to maintain a uniquely identifiable claim file. The information may be shared and is subject to verification, via paper, electronic media, or through the use of computer matching programs, with national, state, local or other charitable or social security administrative agencies in order to determine benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary for determination or continuation of benefits under this program, or to report income for tax purposes. It may also be shared and verified, as noted above, with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law. Executive Order 9397 (November 22, 1943) authorizes the use of the Social Security Number as an individual identifier to distinguish between people with the same or similar names. Failure to furnish information may delay or make it impossible for us to determine your eligibility to receive benefits.

We estimate this form takes an average 10 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the completed form. Send comments regarding our estimate or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing completion time, to the Office of Personnel Management, Retirement and Benefits Publications Team (3206-0197), Washington, DC 20415-3430. The OMB Number 3206-0197 is currently valid. OPM may not collect this information and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed.
