Federal Investigations Notice

Notice No. 06-09

Date: September 11, 2006

Subject: Special Agreement Price Schedule

The Office of Personnel Management's Federal Investigative Services Division (OPM-FISD) offers numerous special investigative products to meet the varied needs of our customers. The description and price of each of these products is shown on the reverse side of this notice. The prices shown become effective October 1, 2006, and should remain in effect until September 30, 2007, unless OPM experiences significant increases to user fees for any of these searches.

These Special Agreement Checks (SAC) are in addition to our standard background investigations described in Federal Investigations Notice 06-08. OPM conducts SACs for agencies that want to obtain single or multiple record checks for use in pre-screening candidates, resolving individual security/suitability issues, or fulfilling other agency mission-related objectives. We encourage you to contact your Investigations Program Specialist at (202) 606-1042 to discuss how OPM may be able to help meet your investigative needs with this wide range of case products.

We will also continue to offer our Reimbursable Suitability/Security Investigations (RSI). An RSI consists of a focused investigation to provide information to resolve that fall outside the scope of the investigation or when coverage is needed to establish a history or pattern of behavior. A Special Interview (SPIN) may be requested as part of the RSI. The SPIN gives the subject an opportunity to refute and explain developed information and to offer new information they choose to provide. The RSI product is easy to request. For additional information, please refer to Federal Investigations Notice 93-4, dated June 14, 1993, or contact OPM's Case Management Program at (724) 794-5612.
