

For Immediate Release
July 15, 2025

media@opm.gov

Chuck Ezell Concludes Tenure as Acting Director of OPM

WASHINGTON, D.C. — As Scott Kuper officially assumes his role as Director of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM), former Acting Director Chuck Ezell expressed his gratitude for the opportunity to lead the agency during this time of transition. Ezell will stay on with OPM as a transitional senior advisor.

“It has been the honor of my career to serve as Acting Director of OPM,” Ezell said. “Every day, I’ve been inspired by the dedication, expertise, and professionalism of this workforce. Together, we’ve continued advancing OPM’s critical mission by supporting the federal workforce and serving the American people with excellence. I am proud of what we’ve accomplished and confident Director Kuper’s leadership will take this agency to even greater heights.”

###