Subject: Retirement and Insurance Benefits When an Annuitant Is Missing - Proposed Regulation

Background:

On July 2, 1997, the U.S. Office of Personnel Management published proposed regulations to establish a uniform standard that will be used in the administration of retirement and insurance benefits in cases in which an annuitant disappears. These regulations would establish procedures to determine the status of the missing annuitant and to allow the missing annuitant's dependents to obtain benefits until the missing annuitant's status is resolved.

This regulation would not apply to situations in which employees, or former employees who had not applied for an annuity, are missing.

RETIREMENT AND INSURANCE BENEFITS WHEN AN ANNUITANT IS MISSING

RIN: 3206-AH75

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is proposing regulations to establish a uniform standard that OPM will use in its administration of retirement and insurance benefits in cases in which an annuitant disappears. These regulations would establish procedures to determine the status of the missing annuitant and to allow the missing annuitant's dependents to obtain benefits until the missing annuitant's status is resolved.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: These regulations are intended to establish OPM's procedures for making payments of annuity during a period when an annuitant is missing and until the annuitant is either found or officially determined to have died. The regulations are aimed at providing continuing support to the family of a missing annuitant, while balancing the interest of the Government in protecting the retirement system from unwarranted disbursements.

These cases are uncommon, but about once a year a case arises under Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) in which an annuitant disappears. In some cases, the circumstances of the disappearance are such that local authorities are able to declare the missing annuitant legally dead (e.g., victims of a plane crash with no survivors but bodies are not identifiable) and we are able to begin survivor benefit payments to the affected families, but, in other cases, a long waiting period is required before a missing annuitant can be declared legally dead. However, over the years, our experience has been that such missing individuals are not found alive.
Accordingly, the proposed regulations would provide for continuing payment of the amount that would be payable as survivor annuity if the missing annuitant were dead.

Subpart A contains information of a general nature, including a description of the type of case covered by the regulations, cross references to related regulations, and definitions of terms used in the regulations. Section 880.101 limits the scope of these regulations to cases involving the disappearance of individuals who are already retired.

In the case of disappearance of a separated employee who has not applied for annuity, we have no authority to pay an employee annuity, as determined by the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in the case of Oshiver v. Office of Personnel Management, 896 F.2d 540 (Fed. Cir. 1990). The court found that no payments can be made until the individual personally files an application. Accordingly, section 880.101 excludes from the coverage of the regulations any case in which the former employee has not applied for retirement.

Section 880.102 is a research aid providing references to related regulations. Section 880.103 defines terms used in this part.

Subpart B establishes the procedures that we will follow in missing annuitant cases. Section 880.202 establishes that the Retirement and Insurance Service is the component of OPM that will receive and act on any missing annuitant report.

Section 880.203 establishes the procedure that OPM will follow to determine that a retiree is missing and assigns to the Retirement and Insurance Service the responsibility for suspending payment and providing notice to affected individuals. That section also specifies the types of information that the affected individual will receive in the suspension notice.

Section 880.204 provides for retroactive restoration of the annuity and an offset for any disbursements made during the disappearance, in the event that the annuitant is found. That section also provides that we will consider issues of competency of the previously missing annuitant and if necessary require a representative payee be appointed before restoring the annuity.

Section 880.205 establishes the standard of evidence required to prove the death of a missing annuitant before we will authorize any form of lump-sum death benefits under CSRS or FERS or a life insurance payment. Although in routine CSRS and FERS death cases we accept other forms of evidence to establish the death of an annuitant, in missing annuitant cases before paying any lump-sum death benefit or life insurance, we will require documentary evidence that an official with legal authority to make determinations that an individual is legally dead has made such a determination for the missing annuitant. The individual claiming that the missing annuitant is dead has the burden of proving that the official determining death is authorized to make such determinations. We expect that such proof will generally consist of appropriate State or other official documents authorizing the official to make such determinations.

Section 880.206 establishes a uniform date of death for the cases covered by these regulations. This rule is needed to prevent unjustified variations in benefits depending on local law. Under these regulations, the date of disappearance will be used as the date of presumed death.
Section 880.207 establishes that we will review each missing annuitant case after a determination of death to make certain that the proper benefits have been paid and premiums collected consistent with the date of death established under section 880.206.

Subpart C establishes the methodology that we will use to determine benefit levels while the annuitant is missing. Section 880.302 provides for payment of CSRS and FERS survivor annuity as though the missing annuitant were dead. In the usual missing annuitant case, the effect of this rule is that the spouse will be paid at the survivor rate--55 percent (CSRS) or 50 percent (FERS) of the missing annuitant's benefit. However, if the missing annuitant had children who would be eligible for a survivor annuity, we would make payments at the child annuity rate as well. Also, if a former spouse has been receiving a portion of the annuitant's monthly benefit in accordance with a court order, that payment to the former spouse would be suspended under rules that would normally apply when an annuitant's payments are suspended. See 5 CFR 838.323. If a former spouse would be entitled to the survivor annuity, upon the missing annuitant's death, we will pay the former spouse an amount equal to that survivor annuity.

Section 880.303 establishes that family health benefits coverage continues while the annuitant is missing if there is more than one eligible family member, and that the enrollment is transferred to an eligible family member. If there is only one eligible family member, the enrollment is changed to self only and transferred to that family member. If the missing annuitant has a self-only enrollment, the enrollment terminates. If the missing annuitant is later found to be alive, the original enrollment is reinstated upon the annuitant's reappearance unless the annuitant or his or her representative requests that it be restored retroactively to the time of the disappearance.

Section 880.304 establishes that life insurance premiums will not be collected while the annuitant is missing. If the annuitant is located, back premiums will be collected. If not, the suspension of premiums will be permanent because the annuitant is deemed to have died on the date of disappearance.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because the regulation will only affect retirement and insurance benefits of retired Government employees and their survivors.

§ 880.103 Definitions.
For purposes of this part--
Annuitant means an individual who has separated from the Federal service with, and has retained, title to a CSRS or FERS annuity, has satisfied the age and service requirements for commencement of that annuity, and has filed an application for that annuity.
Associate Director means OPM’s Associate Director for Retirement and Insurance or his or her designee;
Authorized institution means a government organization or official legally charged with making determinations of death in the State or country of the missing annuitant’s domicile, citizenship, or disappearance;
CSRS means the Civil Service Retirement System established in subchapter III of chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code;
FEGLI means the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance program established in chapter 87 of title 5, United States Code;
FEHBP means the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program established in chapter 89 of title 5, United States Code;
FERS means the basic benefit portion of the Federal Employees Retirement System established in subchapters I, II, IV, V, and VI of chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code; FERS does not include benefits under the Thrift Savings Plan established under subchapters III and VII of chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code;
Missing annuitant means an individual who has acquired the status of missing annuitant under § 880.203(b).

Subpart B--Procedures

§ 880.201 Purpose and scope.
This subpart establishes the procedures that OPM will use to--
(a) Determine that an individual is a missing annuitant;
(b) Suspend payment of annuity to a missing annuitant;
(c) Notify individuals affected by such a suspension of payments; and
(d) Determine that a missing annuitant has died.

§ 880.202 Referral to Associate Director.
Any OPM office that receives information concerning the possibility that an annuitant might have disappeared will notify the Associate Director.

§ 880.203 Missing annuitant status and suspension of annuity.
(a) Upon receipt of information concerning the possibility that an annuitant has disappeared, the Associate Director will conduct such inquiry as he or she determines to be necessary to determine whether the annuitant is alive and whether the annuitant's whereabouts can be determined.
(b) If during an inquiry under paragraph (a) of this section, or upon subsequent receipt of additional information, the Associate Director finds substantial evidence (as defined in section 1201.56(c)(1) of this title) to believe that an annuitant is either not alive or that the annuitant's whereabouts cannot be determined, the annuitant acquires the status of missing annuitant. The Associate Director will then--
(1) Suspend payments to the missing annuitant; and
(2) Notify individuals who may be able to qualify for payments under § 880.302 that--
(i) OPM has suspended the annuity payments to the missing annuitant;
(ii) Payment may be made under § 880.302, including the amount available for payment, how that amount was determined, and the documentation required (if any) to qualify for such payments; and
In response to an inquiry from any person seeking CSRS, FERS, FEHBP, or FEGLI benefits, OPM will provide information about documentation necessary to establish a claim for such benefits.

§ 880.204 Restoration of annuity.

(a) If the missing annuitant's whereabouts are determined, and he or she is alive and--
   (1) Competent, OPM will resume payments to the annuitant and pay retroactive annuity for the period in missing status less any payment made to the family during that period; or
   (2) Incompetent, OPM will resume payments to a representative payee under section 8345(e) or section 8466(c) of title 5, United States Code, and pay retroactive annuity for the period in missing status less any payment made to the family during that period.
(b) If the missing annuitant's whereabouts cannot be determined, missing annuitant status continues until an authorized institution determines that the missing annuitant is dead. (See § 880.205).
§ 880.205 Determinations of death.
OPM does not make findings of presumed death. A claimant for CSRS, FERS, or FEGLI death benefits (other than payments under § 880.302) or an individual seeking an adjustment of accounts under § 880.207 must submit a death certificate or other legal certification of death issued by an authorized institution.
§ 880.206 Date of death.
(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, for the purpose of benefits administered by OPM, the date of death of a missing annuitant who has been determined to be dead by an authorized institution is the date of disappearance as determined by the Associate Director.
(b) For the purpose of determining whether a claim is untimely under any statute of limitations applicable to CSRS, FERS or FEGLI benefits (section 8345(i)(2), section 8466(b), or section 8705(b) through (d) of title 5, United States Code), the time between the date of disappearance and the date on which the authorized institution issues its decision that the missing annuitant is dead is excluded.
§ 880.207 Adjustment of accounts after finding of death.
After a missing annuitant is determined to be dead under § 880.205, OPM will review the case to determine whether additional benefits are payable or excess insurance premiums have been withheld.
Subpart C--Continuation of Benefits
§ 880.301 Purpose.
This subpart establishes OPM's policy concerning the availability and amount of CSRS and FERS annuity payments and the continuation of FEHBP and FEGLI coverage and premiums while an annuitant is classified as a missing annuitant.
§ 880.302 Payments of CSRS or FERS benefits.
(a) OPM will pay an amount equal to the survivor annuity that would be payable as CSRS or FERS survivor annuity to an account in a financial institution designated (under electronic funds transfer regulations in part 209 or part 210 of Title 31, Code of Federal Regulations) by an individual who, if the missing annuitant were dead, would be entitled to receive payment of a survivor annuity.
(b) If more than one individual would qualify for survivor annuity payments in the event of the missing annuitant's death, OPM will make separate payments in the same manner as if the missing annuitant were dead.
§ 880.303 FEHBP coverage.
(a) If the missing annuitant had a family enrollment, the enrollment will be transferred to the eligible family members under § 890.303(c) of this chapter. If there is only one eligible family member, the enrollment will be changed to a self-only enrollment under § 890.301(p) of this chapter. The changes will be effective the first day of the pay period following the date of disappearance.
(b) If the missing annuitant was covered by a self only enrollment or if there is no eligible family member remaining, the enrollment terminates at midnight of the last day of the pay period in which he or she disappeared, subject to the temporary extension of coverage for conversion.

(c) If the missing annuitant is found to be alive, the coverage held before the disappearance is reinstated effective with the pay period during which the annuitant is found, unless the annuitant, or the annuitant’s representative, requests that the enrollment be restored retroactively to the pay period in which the disappearance occurred.

§ 880.304 FEGLI coverage.

(a) FEGLI premiums will not be collected during periods when an annuitant is a missing annuitant.

(b)(1) If the annuity of a missing annuitant is restored under § 880.204(a), OPM will deduct the amount of FEGLI premiums attributable to the period when the annuitant was a missing annuitant from any adjustment payment due the annuitant under § 880.204(a).

(2) If a missing annuitant is determined to be dead under § 880.205, FEGLI premiums and benefits will be computed using the date of death established under § 880.206(a).
